FIFTY-THIRD YEAR LINCOLN, NEB., THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1955 FIVE CENTS

Brinks Holdup Is Foiled; $498,500 Aboard Truck

Take $160,000 But Cops Arrest Tommygun Pair

BULLETS CUT DOWN GUARD

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Three masked bandits held up a Brink's armored car carrying nearly a half-million dollars Wednesday night, and fled with $160,000 under a hail of police bullets. Two were captured, but the third escaped. The money was recovered.

One of the Brink's guards was shot in the stomach by the bandits, but was reported in good condition at a hospital.

The bandits abandoned their get-away car after a running gun battle with police through a crowded residential section on the city's west side.

Surrendered Meekly

Two surrendered meekly after they were trapped by police. One gave up in a backyard. Another surrendered in the cellar of a house. The third ran to a house around a corner, called a taxi, and was driven away. He was believed wounded.

The truck was hauling six cash boxes containing $498,500 in receipts from the Ft. Erie, Ont., race track.

Police identified the captured bandits as Anthony Pattinato, 39, of Baltimore, Md., and Sylvester Mazella of the Bronx, N. Y.

The police would not disclose the identity of the third bandit, who was identified by the others.

In Garage

Police said the holdup occurred when the armored truck was driven into the Brink garage located in the west side of the city.

Police said the bandits took the money from a truck operated by Kenneth Kemp, 31.

He drove the truck into the garage and closed the door inside. As he went to open the truck's rear door, three men wearing silk stockings over their heads jumped out of another Brinks truck.

The bandit with the machine gun pointed it at Kemp and three other guards in the garage at the time.

Supposed To Be Warning

The gunman fired several shots which he apparently intended to be warning shots, police said.

"We mean business. Get up against the wall!" the bandit ordered.

One of the bullets struck Eugene Clohessy, one of the guards. He was taken to Emergency Hospital where his condition was reported as "very good."

With the other guards backed against the wall, the bandits removed a strongbox from the truck and fled in an automobile.

Two of the other guards pursued the bandits in another automobile, while the third notified police.

The bandits left their automobile in the street a short distance from the holdup scene and fled on foot.

Mrs. Angelo Alba, who lives in one of the houses, told reporters that one of the bandits ran into her backyard as she was emptying garbage.

'Help Me'

"Help me!" he asked the woman.

She said she ordered him out of the yard and ran into the house. The bandit came in through an open cellar door.

Mrs. Alba said she heard what she thought was a lot of "firecrackers" in front of her home and a few minutes later police burst into the house.

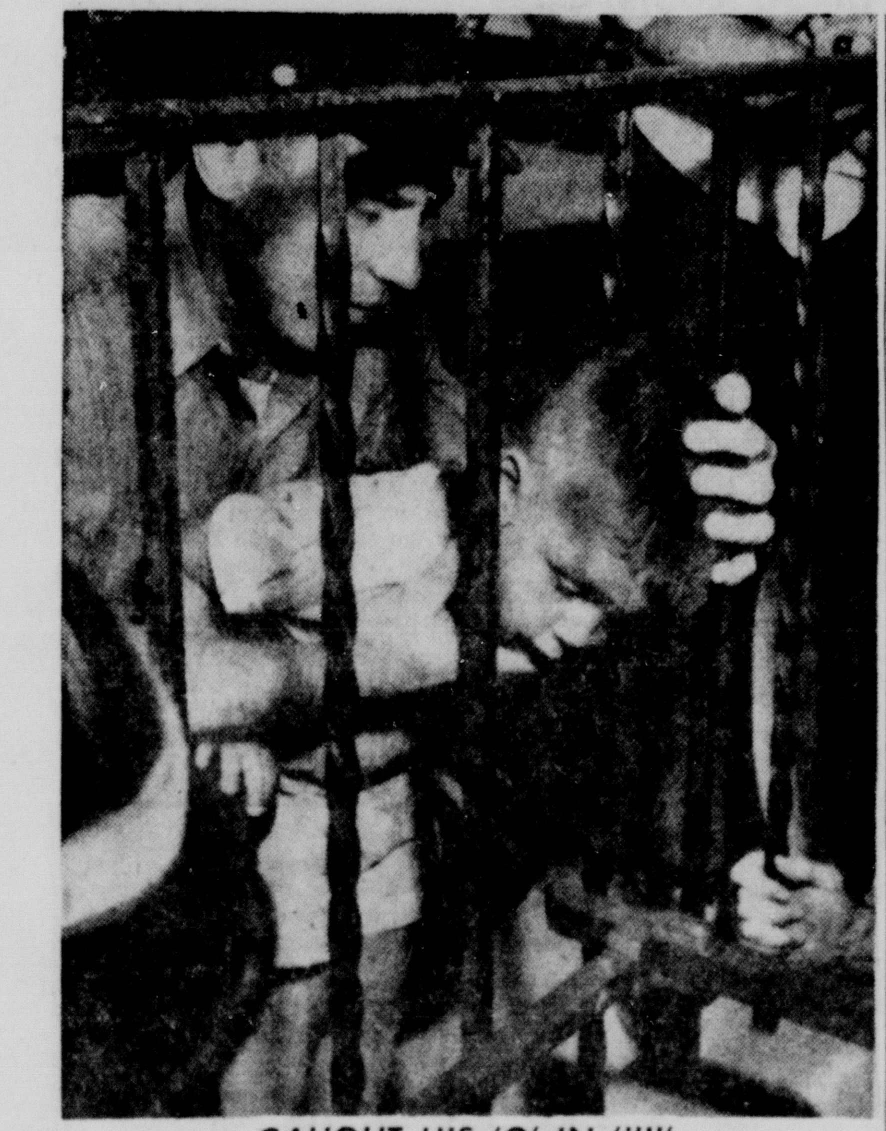
"He may be in the cellar," she told police.

The gunman surrendered meekly to the police and was taken to police headquarters.

Meanwhile, police had the second bandit trapped in a house across the street.

The details of his capture were not available immediately.

The largest cash haul in the nation's history was obtained in another Brink's holdup at Boston on Jan. 17, 1950, when bandits escaped with $1,219,000 in cash. None of the money was ever recovered and no convictions were obtained.



CAUGHT HIS 'O' IN 'IIII'

Larry Spangler, 4, of Long Beach, Calif., whose head is shaped like an O, was making an inspection when his O stuck in a fence with bars shaped like IIIII. Then he couldn't get his O out of the IIIII. His mother, Harlene, 19, called firemen. They bent the II into an () and Larry got his O out. (AP Wirephoto.)

Discount Rates Given A Boost

4 Reserve Banks Announce Hike; Others Expected To Follow

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government took another anti-inflationary step Wednesday, approving increases in discount rates charged by four Federal Reserve banks.

The Federal Reserve Board approved a boost from 1¾ per cent to 2 per cent in Chicago, Boston and Atlanta and to 2¼ per cent in Cleveland. Other Federal Reserve Banks are expected to raise their rates accordingly.

These percentages are the interest rates member banks must pay when they borrow money from the Federal Reserve system. The idea is that a higher rate will discourage excessive borrowing by the banks, and in turn discourage the banks from making so many loans to their customers.

A tightening of credit along such lines is a historic weapon against inflation.

Last Saturday the government took another action aimed at tightening credit, by increasing the down payment requirements on the purchase of houses and shortening the term of FHA and GI home loans.

New York investment and banking circles showed no surprise at the increase in discount rates, which are effective Thursday in Chicago, Boston, Cleveland and Atlanta. Authorities in New York said interest rates generally have been building up in recent months.

Seasonal Demand

Both in Washington and New York it was noted that a seasonal demand for loans makes itself felt at this time of year as business expands inventories and prepares to increase production.

Many merchants at this season are borrowing to order their fall and Christmas stocks, and farmers are borrowing against crops that have not been havested.

Washington officials said they did not believe the tighter credit would have much effect on legitimate loans, but would tend to knock out loans on doubtful enterprises.

9 Billion Increase

All private bank loans on May 25 this year totaled $89,840,000,000, an increase of almost $9,000,000,000 over a year previous and an increase of more than $4,000,000,000 since Jan. 26, 1955.

About half of the increase in the first half of this year was in loans to businesses, the approximately $2 billion gain being the largest in any similar period since World War II. For the preceding three years, business loans declined during this period.

Bank loans to consumers for such things as the purchase of automobiles and housing equipment were up about a billion dollars in the first half of 1955, a near record gain.

Real Estate Loans Up

Real estate loans by commercial banks were up $1,300,000,000, a gain which was about the same as occurred in the last half of 1954.

The whole picture, officials said, indicated a credit boom that would be dangerous if it got out of hand. The dollar has been relatively stable since 1952 and the expressed aim is to keep it that way.

The raise in the Cleveland area discount rate from 1¾ per cent to 2¼ per cent was the largest single change, up or down, since 1948. The new rate there is the highest since 1934.

The 12 Federal Reserve Banks raised their rates earlier this year, from 1½ per cent to 1¾ per cent. Normally the districts have the same rates, but variations such as Cleveland's are permitted, depending on special economic conditions and a bank's judgment of them.

Tightening Of Local Credit Is Predicted

Lincoln bank officials foresaw some tightening of credit and increase in customer interest rates in this area as the result of the Federal Reserve Board's boosting of re-discount rates in four regions, even though the board's order did not include the Kansas City region which serves Nebraska.

Their judgment was based upon the boosting of prime interest rates from 3 per cent to 3¼ per cent by major commercial banks in New York City concurrently with the Federal Reserve Board's rediscount hike, plus a rather well established practice by regional federal reserve banks to bring their rates in line with other regions.

The anticipated raise by the Kansas City Federal Reserve bank plus the already present hike in prime commercial paper rates, they said, would cause a study of bank interest rates in this area.

But Lincoln banks described the area's credit picture as wholesome. There is heavy demand for home construction loans and installment credit with no abnormalities in other lines. However, credit has tightened in recent months.

An increase last May of the rediscount rate here from 1.5 per cent to 1.75 per cent plus stiffening downpayment requirements on homes acted against possible incipient inflationary trends.

Airmen Reach Freedom

Chow, Clothes, Plane Waiting

HONG KONG (AP)—Eleven American airmen imprisoned by the Chinese Communists for 2½ years crossed the Hong Kong bridge Thursday.

After a change into new Air Force uniforms and a meal of man-sized steaks flown down from Japan, the men were scheduled to take off within a few hours in two special C-54s for Clark Air Force Base north of Manila.

They will spend two or three days in the Philippines, then be flown direct to the U.S. West Coast for the reunion with their families.

Shot Down In B-29

The airmen were members of a B-29 crew shot down Jan. 12, 1953, on a leaflet-dropping mission over North Korea.

Last November the Chinese sentenced them to prison terms ranging up to 10 years as spies, a charge which the United States denied.

Their release was announced by Peiping Monday, just before the opening of U.S.-Chinese negotiations in Geneva.

The smiling men walked across the border river bridge 32 miles north of Hong Kong at 1:37 p.m. First reports from British border guards said they appeared in fair to good physical condition and in good spirits.

Americans Give Advice To Russ Farmers

KURGAN STATION, U.S.S.R., (AP)—The American farm group touring the Soviet Union handed out some advice Wednesday on how to improve Soviet agriculture. A reporter from the Soviet news agency Tass wrote a dispatch about it which was distributed to every corner of Russia.

This demonstrates the seriousness with which Soviet authorities are taking the immensely popular visit of the Americans. The party came to this little whistle stop in the Kuban Republic to tour a collective farm specializing in hogs.

Tass said they "gave advice on how to carry on more rationally. Despite the significant successes of Kuban animal husbandry, manpower is not always used productively," the Tass correspondent quoted them as saying.

J. M. Kleiner of Nampa, Idaho, said "personnel could be curtailed with better mechanization and organization," the dispatch said.

Moving on to a cattle farm, Kleiner said—and Soviet reporters telegraphed—"With you everything is on a great scale. There is much good and attractive. You need to try to obtain more from every acre and from every cow."

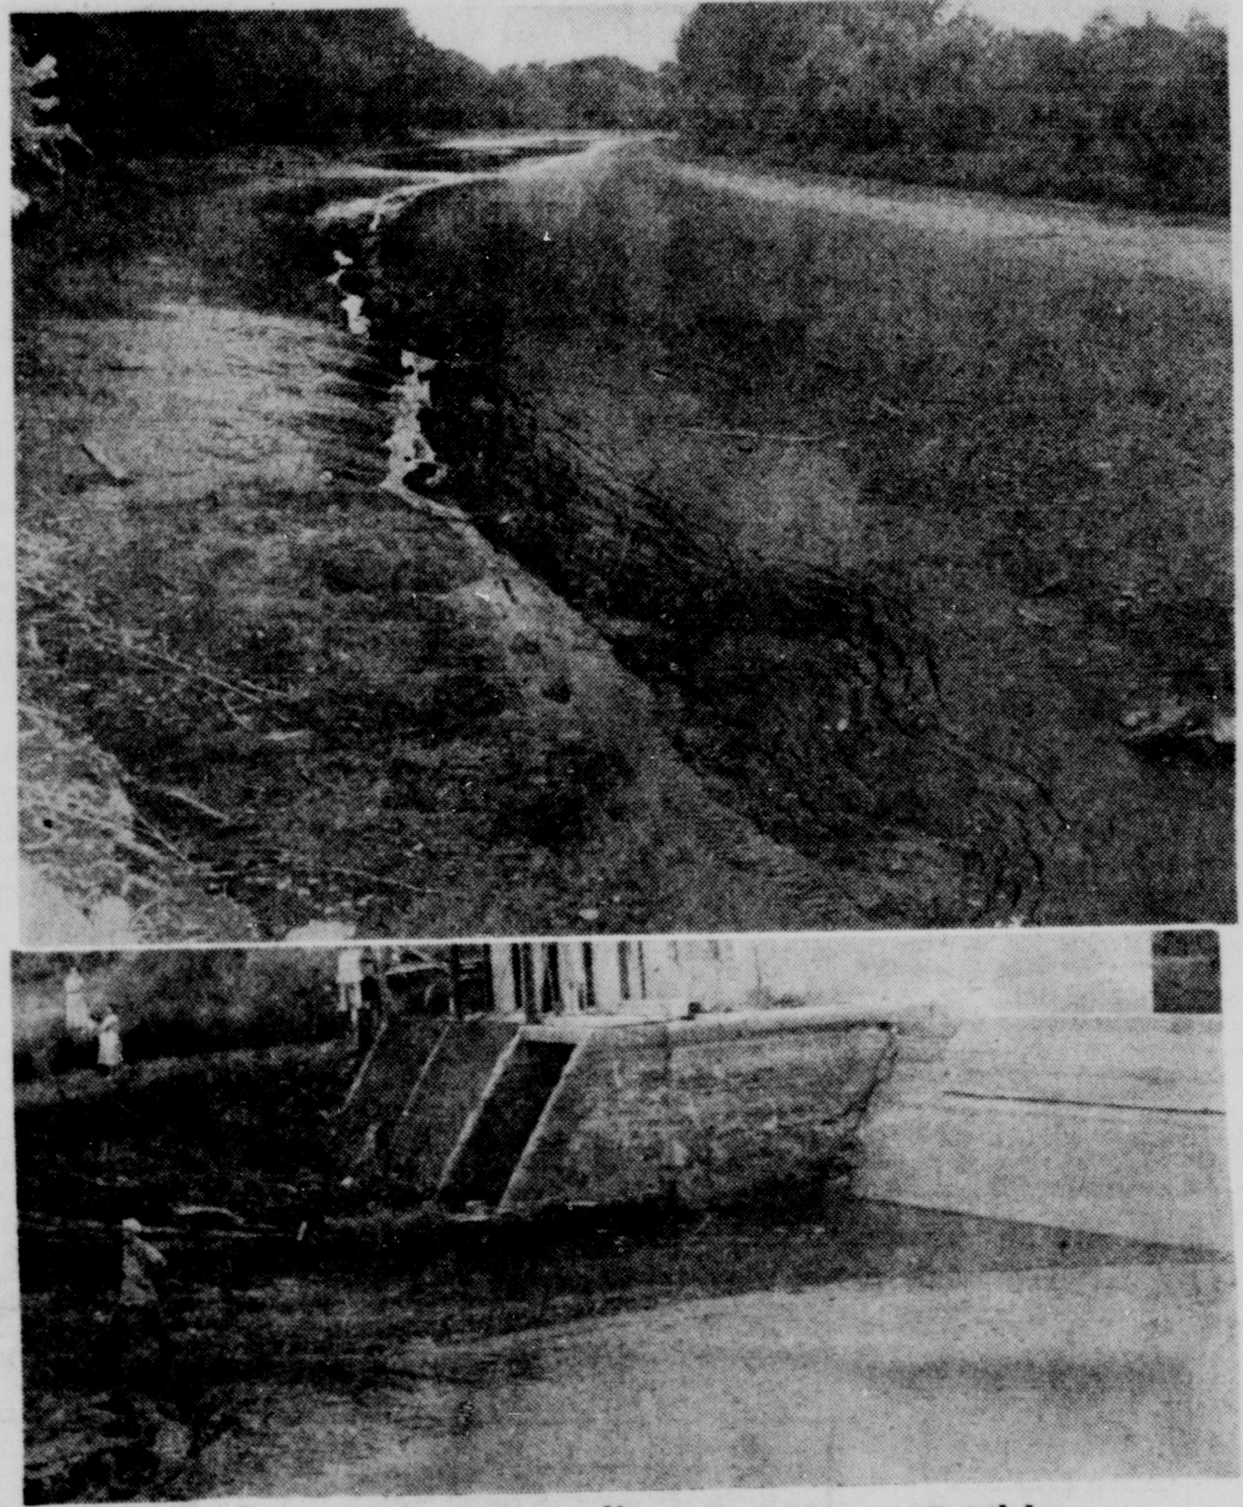
The Americans spent the night at a farm named for the late Joseph Stalin. They were entertained at a concert there by local musicians and planned to leave in the morning for Rostov-on-the-Don.

Mrs. Ida Clark Dies At Hospital

Mrs. Ida Clark, 83, died at a local hospital early Thursday. She had been a resident of Lincoln about five years.

Funeral and burial will be at Seward, her former home. She was the widow of the late Allison B. Clark of Seward. She had also lived at Pleasant Dale.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Mattie Eicher of Lincoln; three sons, Kenneth Clark of Lincoln and Norman and Allison Clark of Pleasant Dale; five grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Henry Kilzer of Lincoln and two brothers, Joseph Ricenhaw of Seward and Norman Ricenhaw of Beaver Crossing.



Blue River Dwindles To Mere Trickle

Increased irrigation demands are blamed for this practically dry river bed of the Blue River near Milford. At the point shown in the top photo the river is a mere 11 inches wide and no more than three inches deep. The river is wider below the Milford dam, but the water is stagnant, causing a heavy loss of fish. Lower photo shows Henry Dedic, Milford farmer, at extreme left, with a foot on each "bank" of the Blue. The Milford Dam No. 1, southeast of Milford, is in the background. Story on Page 23. (Photos Special to The Star.)

Hot Weather Helps, But . . .

A Sneeze Is A Sneeze Is A Sneeze

By ROY CAMPBELL
Star Staff Writer

If you're feeling slightly subdued with the heat these days, consider the plight of the hayfever sufferer —not a rarity in these parts — who's really caught between a sneeze and a sweat.

According to the best authorities, hayfeverites (our word) are best off when the weather is hot and dry, much like it is now. It's a question of whether he'd rather suffer with the heat or the fever.

He's in a sweat regardless.

For the people who feel that no nose would be good news, the season is rapidly advancing, in fact already has started But because of the hot weather and lack of rain, the effects have been minimized.

An authority in such matters is Dr. George Misko of Lincoln who warns us that Aug 15 is normally the peak of the hayfever season. Up to then, the season is just starting. And when it reaches its peak, it doesn't slack off.

It just stays there.

Our local troubles, Dr. Misko points out, are due to ragweed, an obnoxious little plant, and hemp, another one. Both are useless for commercial purposes and serve only a nuisance value.

The only relief for the heat, again according to best authorities, is rain. And when we get rain, the ragweed and hemp blossom forth with the rest of the flora and fauna.

And with the blossoming comes the pollen, a result of the pleasureless plant communication that breeds misery through a windblown matrimony.

Don't bother to cut the ragweed in the back yard when the pollen starts. According to Dr. Misko, who himself is not immune to the scourge, the pollen area in the midwest extends from the gulfcoast on the south to the Canadian border on the north.

Even planes flying two miles in the air have caught up particles of the stuff. And to top that off, pollen travels around 300 miles in its search for a landing place.

That is to say — and the Chamber of Commerce won't like this— we're getting pollen, even today, from Kansas and Oklahoma. The only consolation in this fact is we're sending back our own variety.

Finally, according to Dr. Misko, there are only two things to do when the hayfever gets to you good and hard. One, the best, is to put yourself under consultation with your private physician.

He can administer drugs to desensitize the effects of the pollen.

The other solution is to head for the hills, mainly Oregon and Washington, where hayfever is practically non - existent.

State School Lunch Funds Up

Nebraska's federal allocation of nearly $550,000 for next year's state school lunch program was greeted as "good news" by the director of the program Wednesday night.

International News Service reported from Washington that slightly more than $67-million of an $83-million program budget was being split between the states by the Department of Agriculture.

Nebraska's share was listed at $548,477—some $77,000 more than was allotted last year. The amount must be matched locally.

Allen Elliott, director of the state school lunch program, said the increased amount was "good news to me and it will certainly help." He speculated that the federal government's school milk allotment, not included in the lunch figure, would grow in proportion to the announced increase.

Last year's milk allotment was about $361,000.

INS said the total lunch program last year served about 1.8 billion meals to 11 million children. The breakdown of the program's budget ,as reported by the news agency, showed that some $15-million was reserved by the Agriculture Department for the purchase and distribution to schools of foods which help meet nutritional requirements. The remaining $1.3-million was set aside for administration of the federal program.

School lunches serve a two-fold purpose of expanding farm product markets and improving the diets of children.

The largest share of the 1955-56 allotments, $3,847,754, was granted New York state. Texas followed with $3,823,503. Other states receiving more than $3-million were Pennsylvania and California.

Weather Blamed In Omaha Death

It was hot in Nebraska again Wednesday, and predictions said it was to be nearly as hot over most of the state Thursday.

The nine-day old heat wave was blamed Wednesday for the death of an Omaha man and may have contributed to the death of another.

Allan Skeen, 49, died at his home of heat prostration, and Chris Deihm, 62 was pronounced dead on arrival at an Omaha hospital. Attendants said heat may have been partly responsible for Deihm's death.

Meanwhile, seven other persons in Omaha, most of them elderly, were hospitalized from heat exhaustion. At least two were reported in critical condition.

48 Die In Midwest

At least 48 deaths have been attributed to the heat in the Midwest, according to the Associated Press.

Some cool air from the northern Rockies was expected to spread into northern Wisconsin on Thursday and into Iowa and extreme northern Michigan by Friday. However, forecasters said it probably would dip no farther south and that most of the Midwest could expect continued hot weather.

Nebraska's high temperature was 105 at Valentine. Burwell and Chadron had 102, and Imperial had 100. The Lincoln airport and Omaha reported reading of 99. Lincoln's top mark was 97. Even the lowest maximum recorded was a warm 95 at Scottsbluff.

Readings Thursday were to be from 85 to 90 in the northwest portion of the state, and in the upper 90s in the southeast.

However, forecasters said widely scattered thunderstorms might occur in the west and north late Thursday or Thursday night.

Johnson Will Ask About 475 Yanks' Fate

U.S. Envoy Ready To Quiz Wang

. . . At Third Session

By JOSEPH H. SINGER

GENEVA (INS) — Authoritative sources said Wednesday the United States will call on Red China Thursday to disclose the fate of 475 American servicemen believed held on the Chinese mainland.

Johnson

The sources in Geneva said U.S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson will present Chinese Communist Envoy Wang Ping-nan with a list of 464 American soldiers and 11 coast guardsmen listed as missing since the Korean War.

"Other Matters"

Johnson and the Peiping ambassador will meet at 10 a.m. Thursday for the third session of the "Little Geneva" parley. The talks involve exchange of civilians and "other practical matters at issue" between the U.S. and Communist China.

WANG PING-NAN
. . . will be handed lengthy list.

The discussions were postponed Tuesday for 48 hours.

Johnson, at the same time, reportedly will assure Wang that nothing is preventing Chinese students in the U.S. from returning to Red China if they so desire. Peiping is still not satisfied on this point.

Menon To Visit U.S.

Indian sources meanwhile said that roving Indian diplomat V.K. Krishna Menon plans to go to Washington next week to confer with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

Menon reportedly will try to convince Mr. Eisenhower and Dulles that the U.S. should get the Chinese Nationalists to evacuate the Chinese offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

The informants said Menon also will urge that Dulles meet with Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai soon to discuss outstanding Far Eastern problems.

Epstone Victim Of Heart Attack

KEENE VALLEY, N.Y. (AP) — An Essex County coroner said Wednesday that a heart attack had claimed the life of a Lincoln businessman found dead in his wrecked automobile.

Dr. Alphonso Goff issued the verdict in the death of Samuel W. Epstone, 65, of 2525 Wooddale, part owner of the Cemol Co., of Chicago, wholesale drug firm.

No inquest and no autopsy was held.

A passing motorist spotted the car Monday behind a clump of trees along Route 86A, a half mile north of this Adirondack Mountain village. It was believed that Epstone was taken ill Saturday as he was driving north.

Funeral services at Westchester, N.Y. were planned.

Adenauer, Red Talks Are 'Sure'

BONN, Germany (AP)—West German officials now regard it as certain Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will go to Moscow next month to talk with Russian leaders.

Vice Chancellor Franz Bluecher said Wednesday night a Russian note delivered to the German Embassy in Paris Wednesday removed any lingering doubts about whether the Chancellor would accept the Soviet invitation.

The Soviet ambassador to France, Sergei Vinogradov, called on German Ambassador Vollrath von Matlzan to deliver a note.

A spokesman of the German Embassy said the Russians had agreed the visit should take place early in September and that the resumption of diplomatic, economic and cultural relations should figure on the agenda. Paris is the relay point in the exchange because Moscow and Bonn now have no direct diplomatic contact.

Bluecher said the next step would be a series of meetings between Von Maltzan and Vinogradov to settle other details.

Adenauer has insisted that the visit should take place only after careful preparation of a precise agenda for talks on establishing "normal relations."

The Russians extended their invitation June 7. The Adenauer government replied June 30, agreeing to discuss diplomatic relations but sidestepping the actual invitation until it had been established what the Russians wanted to talk about.

Vehicle Homicide Charged In Death

KIMBALL (AP) — Kimball County Attorney J. H. Myers Wednesday filed in Kimball County Court a motor vehicle homicide charge against Clifford F. Meltaberger of Fort Worth, Tex.

Meltaberger was involved in a July 9 head-on collision north of Kimball in which Mrs. Teresa Abeyta of Scottsbluff was killed and eight other persons injured.

Mrs. Abeyta, her husband, the Rev. Lee Abeyta, their two sons, David and Robert; Dave and Leola Delgado and Elsie Edith Guajardo, all of Scottsbluff, were returning from a vacation in New Mexico at the time of the accident.

Myers said date of the first hearing is pending. Meltaberger is still in a Kimball hospital with broken legs and a broken pelvis which he suffered in the accident.

Sec. Mitchell Sets Minimum Wages For Coal Miners

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell Wednesday imposed wage minimums for soft coal mined on government contracts. In nearly all cases, the minimums are based on the wages paid John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

The action takes effect 30 days from next Saturday. It fixed a wage floor for the first time in the bituminous coal industry under the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act.

Quiet Robber Waits, Takes Over $10,000

DENVER (INS) — A quiet bespectacled bandit waited his turn in line Wednesday at the crowded National City Bank of Denver, told a girl teller to give him all her money, and then escaped with $10,845.

Bank officials said the man handed the teller, Miss Mary Lou Hagle, 22, a shopping bag and said:

"Give me your money. Put the money in the sack."

She put all her paper money in the sack and the gunman quietly left the line of customers and walked out of the bank.

About 35 Years Old

Miss Hagle said the man "looked like a laborer"; he was about 35, 150 pounds and wore glasses. His clothing was described as a blue-green shirt, cream-colored cap with the bill turned down and he carried a blue denim jacket over his arm which possibly concealed a weapon.

The bank was crowded with customers and the gunman was in a long line of waiting people.

FBI agents and Denver police issued an all-points pickup order for the man.

It was the third bank stickup in the Denver area in the past year. One was the holdup of a Denver bank, and the other of a Boulder institution.

Parallel Is Seen By Kefauver

Senator Wonders Why Wenzell Hasn't Quit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) suggested Wednesday that President Eisenhower acted inconsistently in handling the cases of Air Force Secretary Talbott and Adolphe Wenzell, a key figure in the Dixon-Yates probe.

The President accepted Talbott's resignation, Kefauver said, because of his partnership in Paul B. Mulligan & Co., New York efficiency experts.

Yet, in Wenzell's case, the senator went on, Eisenhower said he saw nothing wrong in Wenzell serving as a Budget Bureau consultant at the same time as he was a vice president of the First Boston Corp., a New York financial house.

"I want to say that I can't see a bit of difference, except perhaps here a stronger conflict of interest has been presented," Kefauver stated.

He drew the parallel as his Senate Judiciary subcommittee held another session in its investigation of the controversial Dixon-Yates private power contract.

The Budget Bureau took part in earlier negotiations on the contract. Later First Boston became one of the fiscal agents for Dixon-Yates in raising money for the now defunct power project. Democratic senators have charged the administration with trying to cover up Wenzell's "dual role."

Kefauver also charged that Edgar H. Dixon acted illegally in negotiating the contract with the federal government.

Dixon promptly denied the charge and his lawyer, Daniel James, said: "I'm not scared."

The Tennessee senator said the Federal Power Act makes it a crime for a person to serve as an officer or director of more than one public utility without the approval of the Federal Power Commission.

Hearing Recessed

When Dixon completed his testimony Wednesday, Kefauver announced the hearing would be recessed for five or six weeks and an interim report issued in about 10 days.

"Very important witnesses" are still to be heard, the senator said, and other witnesses will be recalled because of "many conflicting statements" made. These conflicts wil' be pointed out to the Justice Department, he said, and it will be up to the department to decide whether any perjury is involved.

More Refugee 'Assurances' Said Needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roland Luedtke of Lincoln told Nebraska members of Congress this week that the State Department needs more assurances from American citizens that they will vouch for refugees coming here from other countries.

Luedtke, Nebraska's deputy secretary of state, and Dr. Martin Schroeder of Lincoln came here for a conference at the State Department of representatives of governors' committees on refugee relief. Schroeder is chairman of the Nebraska committee. Luedtke represented Gov. Victor Anderson.

Luedtke explained the refugee problem at the final Nebraska congressional delegation breakfast of the year.

He said the program of bringing refugees from other lands to this country has been accelerated by the State Department but that a bottleneck has developed through lack of sufficient assurances from Americans that jobs will be available for the refugees.

Luedtke said President Eisenhower wanted a change in the law so that groups and organizations, rather than individuals, would give assurances for the refugees.

Flying a glider has its problems.

Mr. and Mrs. George Downsbrough of Butler, N. J., are taking a vacation in their brand new, 850 pound aluminum glider. They landed in Lincoln at Union Airport Tuesday night, intending to take off again Wednesday morning.

They had already had minor accidents due to weather conditions. And then Wednesday morning, as they took off in their motorless craft, a down-draft caught the nose of the plane and caused a forced landing.

So the Downsbroughs were spending Wednesday night in Lincoln. Union Airport officials said the accident caused damage to the little brake on the nose wheel. The brake was fixed, however, and the Downsbroughs planned to take off again Thursday morning.

The couple is alternating rides with Mr. and Mrs. David Potter of Planfield, N. Y. One couple glides while the other pair drives a car with a trailer in which the glider can be hauled by unfastening the wing and tail structure.

Yellow River, One Of World's Dirtiest, Will Be Cleaned Up

By SANFORD SOCOLOW

TOKYO (INS) — Communist China promised to clean up the Yellow River, one of the world's dirtiest and most destructive streams.

In six years, Radio Peiping boasted, "the Yellow River will no longer be yellow."

The broadcast, monitored in Tokyo, outlined an ambitious plan mapped by Russian and Chinese experts to clear the 2,700-mile-long river of vast deposit of silt carried along by the muddy waters into the Yellow Sea.

50-Year Project

The plan is projected a half centurn into the future, according to the Communists. Peiping said that in 50 years it "will completely restore the soil-eroded areas to fertile fields and flourishing orchards."

But first, the Communists said they intend to eradicate the root of an old Chinese saying which goes:

"Jump into the Yellow River and you will never get clean again."

The Yellow River is often referred to as "China's Sorrow" because of its violent floods which, through succeeding generations, have taken perhaps millions of lives by drowning or famine.

Series Of Dams

Radio Peiping said the grandiose Communist plan calls mainly for a series of dams to be built along the main stream and tributaries of the river.

The dams, it was claimed, will stop the silt and flood waters from rushing down from the highlands in the interior onto the broad lowlands of North China through which the river flows.

Farmers of the Yellow's immense basin, Peiping reported, will plant trees and grass and practice "improved farming" over 20 million acres of potentially rich soil.

2 More Charged In St. Louis Case

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Two more men were charged with murder Wednesday in the car-trunk slaying of a former St. Louis taxicab driver.

Warrants were issued for the arrest of George Harvill and Louis D. Shoulders, the latter the son of the former St. Louis policeman now serving a federal prison sentence for perjury in connection with the Greenlease kidnaping case.

The body of the taxicab driver, Robert Carr, 24, was found in the trunk of his car July 21 near Livingston, Ill. Authorities at the time estimated he had been dead two days. He had been shot and stabbed.

Harvill, an East St. Louis, Ill., tavern operator, and Shoulders previously had been questioned about the slaying. Already under a murder charge in the case is Bobby Davis Martin, 27-year-old St. Louis cab driver.

Anderson Holds Order Restricting Loup Water

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

Gov. Victor Anderson was moved Wednesday, following eloquent appeals from a delegation of Loup Valley irrigators, to hold up his order restricting the amount of water irrigators can take from the Loup River.

The action of Dan Jones Jr., chief of the Bureau of Irrigation, was taken on an application of the Loup River Public Power District of Columbus, asking that the state administer use of the water from the Loup River.

The order was along the lines of a Supreme Court ruling that the irrigation districts were entitled to one foot of water, measured at the headgates, for each acre under irrigation.

Use of more than that amount of water would require the irrigation districts to pay the power district for the amount of water taken. Jones urged the two districts to reach an agreement on the value of the water.

The Governor's directive would allow the Middle Loup Irrigation district to take 45,000 acre feet of water, the maximum allowed under its permit, although only 19,150 acres are under irrigation. The North Loup district would be allowed 38,000 acre feet, its maximum, with 29,600 acres under irrigation.

The districts have asked two five year extensions and one three year extension, since their permits were granted, to get the aditional acreage they requested under irrigation.

The rate of taking water was limited in the Governor's order to 260 cubic feet per second for the North Loup and 273 per seconr for the Middle Loup or one foot for each 70 acres, the maximum allowed under their permits.

Two suits bearing upon the Loup water distribution are now pending, one in Federal Court and one in the State Supreme Court. Another suit filed by the power district to collect for excess water used in 1940 was remanded by the State Supreme Court to the District Court in Platte County. It has not come to trial.

Once before, in 1941, the power district asked the state to assume administration of the Loup waters, but it was later withdrawn, state officials recalled.

George Munn of Ord, eloquently pleaded the cause of the irrigators before the governor at a morning meeting. He pointed out that the permits made reservations of 38,000 and 45,000 acre feet of water.

"We're not going to pay for water that is ours," he said and continued that by following the request of the power district for state administration the "state is acting as a collection agent" for the power district.

He termed it a "travesty on justice" when the power district seeks "to take water needed to feed the parched land." He appealed to the Governor "for protection on the basis of law, justice, fairness and equality."

Munn pointed out that the power district has all of the water for practically eight months of the year. The district waited until the critical crop period before making demands for the state to "pull their irons out of the fire," he said.

Jones, in his original order dated May 26, named an effective date of June 6, but it was later extended.

Munn told the Governor, the "only thing that will raise crops is water." He said there are other means of producing power.

Anderson explained that on taking office he "took an oath to enforce the law" and that the Attorney General tells him what the law is and he must follow it.

Hands Tied

Robert V. Hoagland, assistant Attorney General, said the Attorney General's "hands are tied by two prior Supreme Court decisions." He said of the suit in Federal Court, that it is the opinion of his office that a Federal Court is without jurisdiction.

Sen. K. W. Peterson of Sargent said that it was the understanding that the irrigators would be allowed one foot of water on each acre. By measuring at the headgate, he asserted, loss due to evaporation and seepage cuts the amount received to six inches.

"I don't believe we are violating the law until we get 45,000 acre feet," Peterson told the Governor.

The irrigation district obtained its permit to take water from the Loup River in 1934. A large number of pump irrigators in the area have reached agreements for payments to the power district.

MICE, GUINEA PIGS MUNCH CARROTS IN STRATOSPHERE

. . . It's Cool There

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP) — A contented colony of mice and guinea pigs returned to "home base" after munching on carrots and potatoes in the stratosphere.

Many of the 40 little animals that soared to 125,000 feet above Minnesota and North Dakota in a sphere attached to a research balloon will take off on another air-conditioned flight in a day or two.

The animals are being used in test flights launched by Winzen Research Inc., Minneapolis to study for the Air Force the effects of cosmic radiation at high altitudes.

The head of the research firm said the flight carried animals and instruments higher into the stratosphere than ever before.

The animals and instruments were unharmed when they parachuted to earth near Crosby, N.D.; after a 26-hour flight.

Instruments in the balloon enable Winzen planes and trucks to follow the course of the flights.

At set times, the balloons disintegrate and the "cargo" floats slowly to earth.

The plastic balloons are 240 feet long and have a diameter of 172 feet.

100 Reported In Arrest—

'Moral Conduct' Brings Discharge Of 6 WACs

FT. JACKSON, S.C. (AP)—Six members of Ft. Jackson's small WAC detatchment under investigation for the last two weeks following reports of "questionable moral conduct" have been discharged "for the good of the service."

The Army post's public information office declined further comment on Wednesday's action. It would say only that the discharges were "of the undesirable type." Names of those discharged were withheld.

Ft. Jackson authorities announced that "as a result of reports received from certain members of the WAC detachment allegations of questionable moral conduct on the part of a small group within the detachment are now under investigation."

100 Arrested?

They would neither confirm nor deny a Chicago Tribune dispatch from nearby Columbia that several of the 100 WACs stationed here had been placed under barracks arrest.

The paper said that the detachment had been under close check since a WAC attempted suicide more than a month ago.

The paper reported that the WAC took an overdose of sleeping pills and reportedly left a note or made "a verbal complaint indicating that her suicide attempt was an effort to escape the solications of a group of WACs who had tried repeatedly to induce her to engage in immoral acts."

601 Youngsters Get Second Salk Shot At Beatrice

BEATRICE, Neb. (AP)—Only 601 Gage County first and second graders showed up for the second round of free Salk anti-polio vaccinations Wednesday. In May, 892 had appeared for the first round of shots.

Dr. William Starkel, Beatrice school superintendent and a member of the county polio committee, attributed the decrease to many children being out of town coupled with adverse publicity about the vaccine.

Better Living

Nebraska's smaller cities and towns have always attracted rural people who reach their riper years with sufficient means to retire. They liked the services and convenience of town life and found the tempo of the small city a comfortable one.

There have been some that said this rural hegira to town would end with the modernization, electrification of the farms and the ease of transportation. There would be no point in seeking town life.

Apparently this is wrong.

The University of Nebraska's Council for Community Study has found that the towns and smaller cities are experiencing an increase in residents arriving after age 40. Their population figures show that 51.6 per cent are of that age or older.

The smaller communities not only are meccas for those retiring from the farm. They have found new attractiveness with those who are being repelled increasingly by the hard pace of metropolitan life. They find fuller satisfaction in the neighborliness, the friendship and the pleasant movement of time in the smaller communities. It is not a hard feeling to understand.

Of Business Concern

Americans who have lived long enough to recall the lift it gave the nation at the outset of World War I when men of distinction in private business laid down their profitable tasks and went into the service of the government at a dollar a year are rendered pensive by the current reaction against free-given public service.

Notably there is the action by the recent Congress to limit dollar-a-year men to advisory roles. And Rep. Patman, Texas, received support, though not enough to pass his measure to bar them entirely from government. There is talk of steps by which the government will develop its own specialists, perhaps under the civil service setup, which would eliminate the necessity of calling on business for aid and counsel during periods of special need.

The withdrawal of confidence in the dollar-a-year men is a sad commentary on what was once considered one of the finer things about the American system. It is the old story of a few bad apples spoiling the basket. There have been innumerable dollar-a-year men who served their country with distinction and in the finest tradition, taking no thought of gain nor ever leaning an inch toward the side of business connections and friends. But the record does show the few who brought into public service strong bias and a hunger for public favor.

It does not seem prudent for the government to limit itself nor bar truly patriotic business leaders from public service and to do so would certainly indict a great group of past dollar-a-year men whose conduct was irreproachable. Better it would be for business and industry to take cognizance of its own position and require of its representatives the highest order of behavior, being first to denounce one of its own who is violating.

Men Of Good Will

We doubt that the first sessions of the 84th Congress, which knocked off chores Tuesday, was any great shakes when it came to compiling a legislative record. But it did make one contribution which is outstanding and which demonstrates how stupid misguided partisanship can be when it lets itself get out of hand.

During the congressional campaign of the fall of 1954, President Eisenhower went before the country seeking the election of a Republican Congress on the grounds that if the Democrats won, the relationship between the White House and the legislative branch on Capitol Hill would lead to a cold war. The President can be very grateful that he was everlastingly wrong. He owes a great deal to the support which he received from Democratic majorities in both House and Senate on some of the key presidential recommendations for legislation. His own party rejected his leadership on several occasions. He was saved embarrassment politically, and more important, he was spared the headache of a nation divided in national policy by the votes of Democratic members of Congress, who contributed to one of those rare, extraordinary eras which reflect the intentions of men of good will.

It will be recognized that the majorities in the House and Senate wearing the Democratic party label did not help themselves by the course which they adopted when it comes to the campaign of 1956. In the international field, they gave Mr. Eisenhower what he wanted—gave him what his own party withheld from him—and only in the domestic field did differences develop, none of them too heated or too sharply drawn.

There was need for this era of good feeling. Men of good will can serve America most effectively at this time, voicing dissent and projecting the right to disagreement only when matters of great conscience are at stake.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

One of the commercials heard frequently suggests that the most important product is progress. Every time the individual turns around, it—progress—is so apparent in America, where constantly the commonly shared aspiration is for higher standards of living. That goal can be rough on the pocketbook and at the same time satisfying.

Up And Up It Goes

There could be a better time than the present sweltering hours and days to talk about taxes, dull stuff at the best, certainly not exciting in discussion in over-100-degree temperatures. The state tax levy for 1955 will be 8.18 mills, of which 6.33 mills is earmarked for the general fund and 1.85 mills embraces special levies authorized by the Legislature. It is the highest aggregate levy for purposes of state government since 1920 when a constitutional convention changed methods of assessment. The general fund levy is the highest since 1904, which is as far back as the records in the tax commissioner's report go, the highest in more than 50 years. This statement is not presented by way of criticism. We may or we may not be spending more than we should. The mixture we have brewed may be a little too thick for the blood, but if it is, most of us will recognize that it represents the price of progress. At that, it can be said that the cost of state government in Nebraska is considerably less than in neighboring sister commonwealths, and for the nation as a whole, substantially more economical than most of the 48 states in the Union. If we insist upon additional services from government—and we do—we must make up our minds we will have to pay for them.

★

The news columns gave Nebraskans the answer, perhaps inconclusive, to "Operation Honesty". The campaign to place all taxable property upon the assessment rolls and at the same time to see to it that a fairer valuation was obtained actually added an approximate $12 million to the grand assessment rolls, the news columns said. That relatively is insignificant alongside the figures for real and personal property in all the 93 counties in the state. The least to be said is that "Operation Honesty" was well intended and in the right direction even if this appeal to individual conscience may have found conscience away on a vacation, or if not vacationing, well satisfied with its own behavior.

Build More Lofty Mansions

There is something about human flesh which readily responds to the goal of building more lofty mansions, regardless of whether the mansions call for an earthly foundation or reach high in the skies. There is not so much as one single little spot of American soil devoid of ambition, seeking to carve for itself a more attractive future, which in the individual sense means that the old home town year after year becomes a better place in which to live. We glance around superficially only to see the impressive evidence of continuing development. Doubts may arise and we may reach the conclusion that we are overreaching ourselves, but the fact remains that the dominant trait Americans are fortunate enough to possess is a boldness of imagination which suggests to them that they should seek constant improvement or betterment. Getting down to real cases, the increase in Nebraska's '55 state tax levy reflects simply the establishment of higher standards for the state's institutions and for the activities which constitute state government.

★

Not all of us like adventuring. Many of us are cautious and conservative in approach, and as a matter of life habit we like to stay close to the shore instead of plunging into the depths. The basic question involved in an increased levy reaches simply to what we want by way of services and how much we are willing to pay.

Miss May Pershing

Most dominant trait revealed by Miss May Pershing in long years of living (her death Monday at 89 years, 70 of which were in close association with the people of Lincoln) was her enchanting acceptance of life itself—a sustaining serenity. She was never hurried. She never permitted herself to become ruffled. She knew sorrows and yet carried her grief with an outward great courage. She was always a gracious, thoughtful lady, considerate of others in deed and word, truly great in her devotion to the members of her family, her community and her country. She saw to it that the closing months of the life of a brother, a distinguished American military leader, were eased and softened.

Miss May Pershing left a precious memory to her friends, a memory which will be cherished by them.

Streamlining

One of the final acts of the present Congress streamlined federal justice in Nebraska and reduced the seats of court from eight to three.

Presently Nebraska's federal judges have benches at Omaha, Lincoln, McCook, Grand Island, Hastings, Norfolk, North Platte and Chadron. After September 1 their work will be confined to three localities, Omaha, Lincoln and North Platte. The measure was not opposed.

Nebraska likes to have its seats of justice conveniently at hand, but it does not object to prudent streamlining nor to a lightening of an unnecessary burden on its federal judges whose primary value is presiding over courts, not traveling to and from them. In an earlier day, remote courts constituted a public hardship. This could hardly be argued in these times of swift and comfortable transportation. Remoteness within a state is becoming difficult to achieve.

Never So Good

The ambassadors of Red China and the United States presently in conference at Geneva are occupying a room for which the United Nations is charging $1.15 a day. At rates as attractive as that, we would send for the wife and kids, if we were ambassadors, and never come home.

Barkley, Rayburn Veteran Rivals

WASHINGTON — Two of the most distinguished members of Congress are Sen. Alben Barkley of Kentucky, better known as the Veep, and speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, known affectionately to many as "Mr. Sam."

Both came to Congress 42 years ago when a new Democratic president, Woodrow Wilson, took control of Washington in 1913 after almost sixty years of post-civil war Republican rule. Both men since then have risen to great heights of power and prestige in the Democratic party and the nation. But they do not always agree.

The other day Barkley remarked a bit plaintively:

"I am getting awfully tired of passing legislation chiefly for the benefit of Texas and Oklahoma."

What he referred to was the ramrod tactics used to pass the Harris bill through the House and the proposal to jam it through the Senate — a bill of great help to Texas and Oklahoma because it exempted natural gas producers from federal regulation when shipping gas north in interstate commerce.

That bill, rammed through the House of Representatives by a narrow 209-203 squeak, was a great personal triumph for Sam Rayburn. But as his friend, the veep hinted, it almost split the Democratic party in two.

This, together with the school bill, which Sam Rayburn would not pass, exposed to the public in ugly detail the basic cleavage within the Democratic party.

☆ ☆ ☆

BASIC DEMOCRATIC CLEAVAGE

It's a cleavage its leaders don't like to show and sometimes won't admit. But when "Mr. Sam" throws the weight of his great prestige into the well of the House and asks fellow Democrats to stand up and be counted for or against him and Texas, while simultaneously sidetracking the school bill, then the cleavage really stands out.

It was a cleavage that had the Democratic leader of the House, John McCormack of Massachusetts, voting against and working against the speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn.

It was a cleavage that caused Rayburn to call the House into session two hours earlier in order to pass his natural gas bill, while keeping the school construction bill waiting another long year.

And it's a cleavage that the Democrats will have to do something about if they even begin to think about electing a president in 1956.

☆ ☆ ☆

RAYBURN BUCKS COURT

To get the whole picture, you have to go back to the supreme court decision in the Truman administration that the Federal Power Commission had the right to regulate the price of natural gas when transported in interstate commerce.

It was not too long ago that Sam Rayburn vigorously opposed his chief, President Roosevelt, when FDR, frowning on certain supreme court decisions, tried to pass a bill superseding the court. But last week, Sam had forgotten that. This time it was Mr. Sam who didn't like the supreme court decision, and this time it was he who tried to pass legislation overruling the court.

For quite a while Sam had waited, hoping to get Eisenhower's support. But Ike was cagey. The Republicans had made commitments to Texas gas tycoons, who contributed so heavily to Ike's campaign, but even so Ike made a statement putting himself on both sides of natural gas regulation.

So Rayburn in the end had to go it alone. Despite the absence of Eisenhower support, and despite the frowns of his old contemporary, ex-Vice President Barkley, Mr. Sam threw his powerful prestige behind the gas bill even though it split the Democratic party right down the middle.

Northern Democrats, led by McCormack, persuaded seven who were going to vote for natural gas to vote "no." But Sam was busy on the other side. And what they didn't know was that Rayburn simultaneously persuaded eight congressmen who were going to vote against natural gas to be absent.

So he won by the slender margin of six votes.

One day later the housing bill was up for debate. Mr. Sam presided. The Housing bill provided for 35,000 public housing units to relieve slums in the big cities. But Mr. Sam was not particularly interested. Instead of buttonholing congressmen he sat placidly presiding. The public housing units were thrown out on their ear.

"When the peanut amendment is up for debate, it becomes a party matter," remarked one bitter northern Democrat, "peanuts affect the South. But when public housing comes up, then it isn't a party matter. Housing affects the north."

"I am tired," remarked the veep, who comes from Kentucky, "of passing legislation chiefly for the benefit of Texas and Oklahoma.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONGRESSIONAL MERRY-GO-ROUND

One explanation given by Rayburn's friends for his promotion of gas while side-tracking the school bill and public housing, is the oil tycoons' threat to change Rayburn's district. Rayburn comes from one of the smallest congressional districts in the country, just north of Dallas, population 227,736. Just below Rayburn, Dallas bulges with a congressional district of 614,799, now Republican . . . The Texas legislature, and especially the gas-oil tycoons who control it, have been threatening to add part of Dallas' huge population on to Sam's district — which would probably defeat him. But as long as Sam shoves through what the gas-oil tycoons want, he has nothing to fear — even if it does raise the price of gas to northern housewives.

Nasser Is Egypt's Dedicated Leader

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt — For nearly two hours Prime Minister Gamal Abdul Nasser met the foreign press he had invited to the third anniversary celebration of the Egyptian revolution. In that time he did not once resort to "no comment" or "we are studying that problem." He did not filibuster nor did he hesitate to give what he must have known was a bad answer from the questioner's point of view.

With rare exceptions all this was done in a language not his own, English, which he learned in Egypt. Nasser has never visited a western country—nor Russia. By his own account he has traveled only in Arab lands.

And the conference came at the end of a long tiring day. It began with an early morning whistle-stop train journey from Cairo to Alexandria which followed the familiar pattern of the U.S. presidential campaigns. That is, there were great crowds, including lots of teen-age boys who swarmed over the train, bands and noise.

What was interesting in a state run by an army junta was the freedom with which Nasser showed himself to masses of people allowed to press close enough to touch his hand. His version of a rear platform would horrify the U.S. secret service. It is a flat car, open on both sides, with only a lacework of brass rails between the speaker and the audience.

True, he was surrounded by the sturdiest and best-fed class of people in today's Egypt, the Army, armed and in uniform. But they and the police, who made token efforts to hold back the crowds, would obviously have been helpless against the one determined man with a pistol who conceivably might have a good aim.

Nasser knows, too, that fanatic Moslem brotherhood of extreme nationalists have not all been suppressed, though he said that a month ago they had been able to put their hands on the heads of the local Communist party and seize all its records. The danger there, he thinks, is past.

Once here he had laid cornerstones and toured the city where at least he had the blessing of a Mediterranean breeze in contrast to torrid Cairo. Having begged for time to shower and change into easy civilian clothes, he strode into the conference room at 9:30 p.m.

Nasser's official pictures do him an injustice, making his appearance sleek and oily type. Actually, his short, grizzled hair is crisp and curly, his skin weatherbeaten and his nose hawklike rather than predatory. He is of impressive size, and he looks like the soldier that he is.

He has said privately to interviewers that he is a man in a hurry, that he probably has not much time to carry out his reforms before some vested interest, propertied or nationalist or even foreign, removes him. "The longer I take to do things, the less time I will have to accomplish them," he has prophesied. That sense of strain despite his fluency and his smiling availability, seems always present to detached observers.

☆ ☆ ☆

Like another hard-working man in a hurry, the late Fiorello LaGuardia, he is something of a puritan in his private life. He does not drink; his officers' clubs do not serve drinks even to visitors. He lives in the same five-room house accorded lieutenant-colonels, for he has refused to raise his own rank. The Cosmopolitan Hotel lounges never see him; he relaxes at home with his wife and five children. He thinks a woman's place is in the home, incidentally.

A greater contrast to the king he deposed, Farouk, in a ornate palace a stones throw from the scene of his press conference, cannot be imagined. Nasser planned it that way, and that at least works.

There is no king's party in Egypt. Farouk is almost a bad word no nice person mentions. The poor and intellectuals deplore his indifference to the country's woes; the middle and upper classes have been embarrassed by the unfolding revelation of his vulgar, shoddy taste.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

A Merry Menagerie Family

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

When a tiny six-inch package of fur came to live at the Carroll Unland home at 601 So. 32nd, Pepper, the part Cocker Spaniel dog didn't know what to think.

And Timmy, the tiny Pomeranian, is still fooling Pepper today. Before Pepper's eyes the little ball of fur turned into a four-legged animal that looked very much like a dog. It barked like one, too. Timmy had been accepted into the family in no time at all and Pepper had to accept what was already done.

Today the two are pals, but the smart-as-a-whip Timmy doesn't let that stop him from pulling a fast one on his buddy. When Timmy wants a toy Pepper is playing with, the Pomeranian will drag out a toy he cares nothing about and acts interested in it.

Sure enough, Pepper rises to the bait and soon Timmy is playing with the toy Pepper hastily discarded.

☆ ☆ ☆

But Timmy is not all trickster. When the two dogs are given cookies to eat, Timmy won't take a bite until he is sure Pepper has one, too. Pepper will eat about three times as much as Timmy, but there is one thing the part Spaniel will not touch—green apples.

The Pomeranian can usually be seen chewing on a green apple during apple season. He will come to the back door, remember that he forgot to take a green apple with him and bound to the Unland's apple tree to retrieve one.

The two dogs are a little skeptical of Skippy, the parakeet. The little bird has a fine vocabulary of 75 words. Timmy and Pepper just ignore such intelligence.

(Star Staff Photo)

TIMMY, PEPPER AND LEE UNLAND
. . . the judge gave the parakeet the bird . . .

So did a judge in a parakeet show once. As the man passed before Skippy to look him over, the bird said, "Run to the hills, Stupid."

Needless to say, Skippy did not win a ribbon.

The two dogs also stay out of the basement of the Unland home where approximately 75 chinchillas and dozen of parakeets are raised.

The Unlands have a regular daily routine, feeding and caring for their pets.

Multi-colored parakeets are Carroll's job while the quiet rich-furred Chinchillas are cared for by Mrs. Unland.

And don't feel sorry for Unlands' animals that wear fur coats these August dog days. They have a cool air-conditioning unit at their disposal in the basement that a working man would give a couple of days wages for.

Squirrel Hunting

I have changed my political faith.

When President Eisenhower got snafued several months ago because the White House gardeners decided to move some squirrels off the putting green, I was quietly pro-squirrel. I was not vehement about it, like some people, but I was nevertheless on the squirrely side of the hullabaloo.

If a person believes in equality, I kept telling myself, he's got to believe in it all the way. He cannot go around making exceptions here and there, like with Presidents, and certainly squirrels have an equal right with golfers to dig holes in putting greens. That's what I kept telling myself. I also told several other people.

That was before the squirrel family came to our back yard. Now I am fiercely anti-squirrel, and if the White House people want to reopen the issue by dispossessing another squirrel or two, I will be on their side. In fact, if they want to improve their technique through a little preliminary practice, they can use our back yard, and our squirrels.

They had better hurry if they want to take advantage of the offer under conditions that are in the least bit favorable. Already the back yard is beginning to look like a slice of the moon's rind, complete with craters, and in another week or two hunting a squirrel through the hills and canyons there will be like hunting Jesse James through the Dakota badlands. Even now we have to equip the lawn mower with crampons and alpenstocks before we dare trust it among the precipices.

The average squirrel does not dig a very big hole, and as squirrels go, ours are exceptionally dainty hole-diggers. They come down out of their catalpa tree, jerk their tails two or three times, make a skillful incision in the lawn and bury some choice tidbit of food. When they are through, there is barely a ripple in the grass.

If it stopped right there, nobody would complain. The trouble is, while the squirrels dig, our dachshunds watch. Dachshunds are dogs which appear to believe that it is a dog's duty to disinter whatever a squirrel may bury. Dachshunds are also not as dainty as squirrels. They never find the squirrel's treasure because the first sweep of their claws scatters it far and wide, before they put their noses into the hole to see what it was the squirrel put there. They threupon assume that the delicacy is buried deeper.

Only yesterday the big old king squirrel from the catalpa tree made a slight puncture in the lawn to hide some small bit of provender. Jeep, our biggest dachshund, roared down upon him just as he was finishing.

The squirrel fled. Jeep dug. He was determined, this time, to recover the buried loot, no matter what effort it cost. He was down to oil-bearing sand before we pulled him out by the tip of his tail.

This is hard on the lawn, which appears gradually to be developing a tendency to grow upside down. For this reason, I have suggested to Mrs. F. that we attempt to make a deal with the White House grounds crew, which must be very frustrated at not having been able to get rid of its own squirrels. They could get even on squirrels by deporting ours.

Rhubarb!

Hardy, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: If Charles Enochs of Columbia, Mo., shown on page 2 of Monday's Lincoln Star, is holding a large head of cabbage, I'll eat it for breakfast, picture and all — and I don't care for cabbage early in the morning.

I've raised both cabbage and rhubarb (maybe pie plant to you) with the help of my husband. When I was a little girl, my sisters and I carried the large leaves with the long stems, like the one pictured, as an umbrella and made the large leaves into hats. Not by any stretch of the imagination can I make it look like a head of cabbage.

Who is mistaken?

MRS. MAX BIXBY

Editor's note: Mrs. Bixby is not mistaken. What she saw pictured on The Star's farm page was a rhubarb leaf displayed by O. E. Hughes of Missouri, from his own garden and measuring 36 inches in length and 35½ inches in width, with a stalk 1½ inches thick. Someone transposed cutlines somewhere along the line — probably some cabbage-head.

Russ Hard-Put To Understand Press

By TOM WHITNEY

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) —Among the many American things with which they are becoming acquainted the visiting Soviet farm chiefs find that the American Press is the most unfathomable and frustrating of all.

Nothing in their previous experience has prepared them for the newspaper stories they read about themselves in the press every day.

'It's Not True'

"But it isn't true," said a Russian about an account he read about himself in a local paper here Tuesday. "How in that case can it be printed?" he asked with genuine bewilderment in his eyes.

He, like his fellow members of the Russian group here, is accepting the mysterious ways of the press philosophically. They are being pleasant with press corps representatives. But it would be wrong to think they are happy about it all.

"What do Americans think about seeing a family picture like that in their newspaper?" asked Peter Babmindra, state farm chief. He was pointing to an enlargement of a photograph showing him, his wife, his married daughter, one grandchild and one small child of his own.

Babmindra was sincerely interested in knowing my reaction. I told him that in America newspaper readers are interested in the human side, the family life, of people they read about. I explained to him that Americans who saw this picture would like him more—since they would see he was a family man. He listened attentively and nodded as I spoke.

But he asked the question because in Russia the papers never talk about anyone's family life. I couldn't blame him for this misunderstanding.

The general attitude of the Russian delegation is reflected by some remarks made by its head, V V. Matskevich at a press conference some days ago. He expressed the hope that the newspapers would devote more attention to the basic purposes — presumably farm technology — of the Soviet journey and "less to other subjects." He was nice about it, but it was clear enough Matskevich felt strongly about this.

Of course, no matter what Matskevich thinks about it, he is unlikely to be able to change the customs and approach of the American Press.

The Russians Wednesday visited a large grain elevator. They also had a free hour for shopping during the regular work day. In their afternoon they got some more looks at South Dakota farming.

Death Crash Cost Charged To Victim

NEW YORK (AP)—In an unusual court decision, a dead man Wednesday was billed for the crash of the rented airplane that killed him.

The estate of John G. Gould was directed to pay $2,500 to the Safair Flying Service Inc., for the cost of the plane, plus $96 to defray the cost of removing the wreckage.

Gould and his wife, Renta, were killed three years ago when the small plane crashed at Wilmington, Del.

Train Skips Track In Rome; 41 Hurt

ROME (AP)—A three-car electric train jumped the tracks in the outskirts of Rome Wednesday night, injuring 41 passengers. Nine were hurt seriously.

The smal ltrain heading for Rome fro mthe Alban Hills was carrying 62 passengers.

Authorities said the cause of the wreck was not known. Three separate inquiries were started immediately.

Joins Famous Unit

LONDON (AP)—The Duke of Kent, 20, cousin of Queen Elizabeth, will join one of Britain's most famous cavalry regiments—the Royal Scots Greys.

SOMEBODY SWIPED PANCHO'S PISTOL

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—A pistol owned by Pancho Villa was stolen from the International Museum, it was discovered Wednesday.

The small train heading for Rome fro the Alban Hills was smashed sometime in the night.

Other items in the case, similar to those used by the Mexican bandit and revolutionary, were not disturbed, Mrs. Bowie said.

Trucker Group Spends $3,790 For Lobbying

The Independent Truckers Association of the Middlewest, Inc., Wednesday filed with the Secretary of State lobbying expenses for the month of May and until adjournment of the Legislature in June. Emil Dobash, Sioux City, Ia., the president, said that their expenses were $3,790 for that period.

During that time the Legislature acted on several bills affecting the trucking industry, including the killing of the ton-mile tax bill.

Cheyenne Oil Well Total Reaches 279

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—Two new oil wells were listed in Cheyenne County, bringing the total to 279.

The new wells are Ginther-Warren-Ginther's Dorman No. 18, west of here, and McDevitt and Wise's Schreiner No. 2, north of Potter.

Stork Trails Cab And Police Car, But Takes Lead Over Hospital Cart

The stork won a hospital race by a beak early Wednesday morning. Mrs. Willie Pickett, 19, of 2021 Vine gave birth, unaided, to an eight pound baby girl.

Mother and daughter were reported in good condition at Lincoln General Hospital.

The baby was born shortly after 3 a.m. Wednesday after the mother was taken out of a Yellow Cab, driven by Roy (Whitey) Wait, 860 No. 25th, who had raced to the hospital under police escort.

Wait had telephoned for the escort after he picked up Mr. and Mrs. Pickett at their home. Police intercepted the car at 17th and B.

Wait told them everything appeared all right at the time.

But when the cab drove into the back driveway of the hospital, police said Mrs. Pickett appeared to be in a great deal of pain. The policemen, Bruce Nelson and Art Walker, went into the hospital and secured a surgical cart to wheel Mrs. Pickett into the delivery room.

That's when the stork caught up. The baby was born en route, but was given immediate treatment in the hospital's emergency room.

Supreme Court Given Teacher's Dismissal Suit

A teacher fired by the Valley County District 37 School Board has taken a suit protesting the action to the State Supreme Court.

Miss Greer's action had been dismissed by the Valley County District Court which found in favor of the school board.

Miss Greer was hired last year and her contract canceled Feb. 15. The board charged her with "incompetency, insubordination, failure to hold school at proper times without good cause. . .failure to be present and open school at proper times. . ."

Miss Greer said she had been doing her job when she was not ill, and stated she had had an emergency operation.

School board members Edward Chelewski, Ralph Lybarger and Wester L. Jones were named in the suit.

2nd Salk Shot Acceptance Only 20 Pct.

Although he reports a "very good response," Dr. James T. Googe, city - county health director, says only about 20 per cent of eligible children are showing up for their polio booster shots.

The heat and confusion on the booster shot program probably has resulted in the reluctance of some parents to bring in their children for the second Salk inoculations, Dr. Googe said. Also, there has been some confusion on where the shots are being given.

All vaccinations are being given at the Health Department building, 10th and R, the health director said.

Wednesday, only 350 of an eligible 1,800 children showed up for their scheduled booster shots. Three children, eligible and with parental consent, received their first inoculation against polio.

The schedule for Thursday:

8:30 a.m. — Clinton, Sacred Heart, Hayward, St. Teresa's, Holy Family, and St. Thomas.

1:30 p.m. — Havelock, St. Patrick, Norwood Park, Bethany, Riley, and Cathedral.

Children who received their first shots at those schools can receive their inoculations at the health department at the scheduled time.

Farm-Town Move Starts At Age Of 40

A University of Nebraska survey shows Nebraskans move from the farm to town in increasing numbers from the age of 40 years on.

The survey covered eight towns: Leigh, Adams, Cedar Rapids, Clarks and Marquette.

It showed that 51.6 per cent of the population in these towns is in the age bracket of 40 years old or more.

Town Attractive

Dr. Edgar Z. Palmer chairman of the University's Department of Business Research and a member of the Council For Community Study commented:

"The town attracts persons from the country who have apparently envied the town life they have observed during their years on the farm.

"It is not however entirely a matter of the aged for the flight into the small city begins as early as age 40.

"The age class '40-44' shows an increase over the class '35-39' and the increase continues generally until a peak is reached at the class '60-64.' "

Increase Showed

The following table shows the increase in proportion of population after age 40.

	40-50	50-60	60 and over
Central City	10.4%	12.7%	21.1%
Clarkson	11.7	11.9	32.7
Howells	11.7	13.3	22.2
Leigh	11.8	14.0	23.9
Adams	10.3	16.8	30.9
Cedar Rapids	8.9	11.6	24.7
Clarks	12.0	12.3	24.6
Marquette	6.5	9.1	27.5

Dr. Palmer said: "The small city should consider this high proportion as a very great social service which it is rendering, and moreover, a source of income."

Other findings in the survey:

In the seven smaller towns, only 33 per cent of those over 60 were born in the same town or vicinity, and in Central City the proportion was 22.5 per cent, "which indicates that it is not true that the population remains static, kept there by tradition only."

No Income

More than 27 per cent of the families in the seven smaller cities did not have an earned income. "Some of these may be living on investments or savings, some on funds from their children, and some on pensions, assistance, or relief."

Six rooms per family is the average number for all families in the eight towns.

More than eight tenths of the male and seven tenths of the female adults are married.

The ratio of 48 males to 52 females runs counter to the popular conception of the small community.

Nebraska Woman Killed In Crash

HOLBROOK, Ariz. (AP) — Mrs. Jack W. McCullough, 60, of Omaha, Neb., was killed in an automobile collision on U.S. Highway 66, 24 miles east of Holbrook.

The Highway Patrol reported Mrs. McCullough crashed into the rear of a car driven by Lawrence F. Williams, 29, Syracuse, N.Y., as he was turning into the Petrified Forest.

Williams was not hurt.

At 64, She'll Get Degree—Without Practice Teaching

Most college students graduate with their futures ahead of them, but one University of Nebraska student is getting a degree so she can retire.

Mrs. Emma Adams, 64, of Brule, will receive her bachelor of science degree at Friday's commencement exercises.

Mrs. Adams, a teacher for 36 years, is eligible for retirement next spring.

She teaches upper elementary grades in a school near North Platte.

Mrs. Adams is just one step ahead of her grandson, Melvin Adams of Brule, who is a senior this summer, but she is several steps behind her three children who hold degrees from the University.

When her husband died in 1944, Mrs. Adams was persuaded to return to teaching to help relieve the teaching shortage.

However, she could not renew her certificate under new state laws.

She received a temporary certificate and started taking off-campus courses and attending University of Nebraska summer sessions.

She says most of her work at the University has been helpful.

"One thing I haven't had to do is practice teach," she says with a laugh.

Mad Hubby Sees Red; Fires House

SAVANNAH, Ill. (AP)—Police reported a husband became so enraged during an argument with his wife that he set their house afire. It burned to the ground.

The husband, Fred Rodgers, a railroad employe, is being held while police determine what charge to place against him.

The argument between Rodgers and his wife, Darlene, ended when she took their three children to a park.

Rodgers went to a friend's home shortly afterward and said he had started a fire in his house.

Firemen arrived too late. Police said Rodgers had been drinking.

Strange Sub Seen Near Stockholm

STOCKHOLM (AP)—An unidentified submarine popped up off Utoe Island in the Stockholm archipelago Tuesday night and cruised around for half an hour before submerging, the Swedish defense staff reported Wednesday.

It was the third such incident in three weeks.

The sub was sighted by a costal artillery sentery. An extensive air and sea search yielded no result.

Basin Compact May Be Asked By Sen. Curtis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Curtis said he may offer legislation for a compact between Missouri basin states for a division of Missouri River power.

He said he is not certain yet that this would be the best step. He plans to confer with Nebraskans and others from the states involved after Congress adjourns.

"If I find that there is sentiment in favor of such a compact I probably will offer a bill next session authorizing the formation of such a compact," he said.

Curtis said the compact would take into consideration all allocations already made by the Bureau of Reclamation, marketing agent for federal power, and then arrange for a division of future power.

If a compact is authorized, governors of the Missouri Basin states would appoint commissioners to draw up a proposed agreement subject to approval by the states' legislatures and Congress.

Curtis said it will be several years before additional unallocated power will be available. This will provide time, he said, for agreement on a compact.

Curtis said he and Sen. Hruska have been informed that Chairman Hayden (D-Ariz) of the Senate Appropriations committee has instructed the Bureau of Reclamation to go ahead with construction of a 115-kilovolt transmission line between Fort Randall and Neligh, Neb.

Myrtle's Only A Paper Doll, But What A Bombshell!

BESSEMER, Ala. (AP) — A Bikini-clad beauty named Myrtle, who almost broke up a happy home, is being held at police headquarters while officers try to decide what to do about the crisis she created.

The angry wife wants somebody arrested and Myrtle would be the logical candidate except for one fact — Myrtle is only cardboard.

MYRTLE
. . . Arrest her?

"It's fantastic," sighed Police Chief C. T. Mullen, in whose lap Myrtle and the wife's demands for action have been dumped.

Most Visible

Myrtle is life-size and three - D. All of her that's visible appeals to the eye. Most of her is visible.

A distributing company representative had been carrying Myrtle around to cafes, where — just for laughs — customers would have their pictures taken with Myrtle.

The pictures would fool anybody. The one snapped of the husband in this case fooled his wife when she heard he'd shown neighbors a picture of himself with a scantily-clad brunette.

Just For Laughs

Mr. Husband — just for laughs —delayed telling his angry mate that Myrtle was just an over-sized paper doll. He waited too long.

"We know that woman," the wife and several of her friends agreed.

Chief Mullen said he had hardly reached his office Monday when the wife arrived.

"I want this woman arrested," she said, showing him the picture.

Mullen sent a detective around to the distributing company to bring Myrtle in.

"Who?" asked a startled secretary when the officers said they wanted to pick up somebody.

"Myrtle, your model," said the detective firmly.

Mullen said the wife now knows Myrtle's flesh and bone are cardboard, but she still wants somebody arrested.

R. S. Reynolds Leaves $12.8 Million Estate

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Richard S. Reynolds Sr., who expanded his foil manufacturing business into an aluminum empire, left a personal estate of $12,800,000, a probate of his will disclosed Wednesday.

He died last week at the age of 73.

The estate—all in personal holdings — was left in trust to his widow. At her death the estate will be divided into four equal shares to be held in trust for the four sons—all top officials of the company—and their children.

Reynolds went to work as a $50-a-month employe for his uncle, tobaccoman R. J. Reynolds in 1903.

At the close of World War I, Reynolds founded a company to roll tin and lead foil for cigarette packaging. Operations switched to aluminum foil in 1926.

Rev. Philip Smith Dies At His Home

The Rev. Philip H. Smith of 1130 J died at his home Sunday at the age of 87.

The Rev. Mr. Smith had been an active Methodist minister for 40 years. He held his first service at Germantown, now Garland, 61 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Fern C.; three sons, Monroe C. of Lincoln, Robin C. of Howard, Kan., Philip H. Jr. of Seattle, Wash.; three daughters, Floy C. Turner of Omaha, Bonnelynn Hartman of Omaha and Beatrice S. Williams of Marshall, Mich.; a brother, Walter C. of Lincoln, and 11 grandchildren.

Joseph Neubauer Dies; Packing Plant Operator

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—Joseph Neubauer, 68, who with his three sons operated the Sterling Packing Plant here, died at Sterling, Colo. The Neubauers purchased the plant last year.

2 Bulgarian Planes Shot Down Craft

Acknowledge It Wasn't Ack-Ack

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Communist Bulgaria acknowledged Wednesday that two of its fighter planes — not antiaircraft guns—shot down the Israeli airliner which carried 58 persons to death last Wednesday.

A government announcement over Sofia radio said the fighters were "too hasty" and "did not take all the necessary measures to force the plane to land" after it veered into Bulgaria's air space.

12 Yanks Perish

All aboard, including 12 Americans, perished when the airliner crashed on a flight from London to Tel Aviv.

Israeli investigators who examined the wreckage said they saw numerous bullet holes which appeared to have been caused by machine gun fire. The first Bulgarian statements said it was antiaircraft fire that brought down the American - built Constellation of the El Al Israel Airlines.

Promise Punishment

The Sofia announcement promised punishment for those who shot down the plane and measures to prevent recurrence of such a disaster. It blamed international tension and repeated previous violations of Bulgaria's air frontier for the action.

The announcement also said the Bulgarian government has informed Israel of willingness to pay damages to relatives of the victims as well as share the cost of the airliner.

THIS TIME IT REALLY WAS THE BUTLER

. . . 34 Years Ago!

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Police said Wednesday that Franz Wuerfel, 71, a retired butler, has confessed he strangled his employer 34 years ago.

But since the 20-year statute of limitations has expired, police said, no charges will be brought against Wuerfel.

The employer, Dr. Moritz Hofmann, disappeared in 1921. After nine years he was declared officially dead.

Excavators came across a skeleton in the bombed ruins of a building here last summer. Papers found nearby were identified as belonging to Hofmann.

Bare Trees Put Nudists On Limb

ROSELAND, Ind. (INS)—Nature is not co-operating 100 per cent with the Roselawn nudist colony.

A spokesman said an entomologist, Palmer E. Mart, was summoned when the nudists discovered their privacy was disappeaing because the trees were shedding their leaves.

Mart (fully-clothed) found nothing wrong with the trees. He said the experience was "interesting but embarrassing."

TAMARA SUED

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Tamara Adel Rees Courtland, the ex-paratrooper who switched sexes through surgery, was sued for alleged breach of contract Wednesday by a Los Angeles man.

The suit was filed in Superior Court in behalf of R. Russell Moore II, 24, who demanded an accounting of Tamara's earnings.

Also named as a defendant was J. E. Courtland III, 30-year-old hair stylist, who married the decorated 31-year-old World War II hero in Reno last July 23.

Moore claimed he was to receive 25 per cent of Tamara's earnings under an oral contract.

23 States Give More Money To Public Education

CHICAGO (AP) — Growing shortages of teachers and classroom space prompted lawmakers in 23 states to appropriate more money this year for public education.

Illinois was typical of the states reporting increased appropriations in an Associated Press survey. The Illinois General Assembly voted a record appropriation of $200,600,000 for state aid to grade and high schools for the two-year period. Also increased were appropriations for state supported universities and colleges.

California Bond Issue

California lawmakers voted to let the people pass on a 100-million-dollar bond issue to continue state loans for school construction. A second bond issue for a 200-million-dollar building program also was scheduled for the 1956 ballot.

More retirement benefits also were voted for California teachers.

Similar bills, scaled down to their population, were passed in Arizona, Colorado, Connecticut and Idaho.

Delaware Pay Hike

The Delaware Legislature raised teacher pay and loosened requirements so that teachers no longer have to use their vacation time for study.

Indiana aimed a $23,300,000 state aid boost to teacher salaries. Iowa followed suit with an 8½ million dollar hike for lower and higher educational units.

The Kansas Legislature passed a measure adding 6½ million dollars to seconday school budgets this year.

Michigan's state aid to schools went up automatically by 22 million dollars.

Minnesota raised basic school aid to $82 from $80 per pupil.

Missouri voted to increase the percentage of tax money given to schools. The increase amounted to about five million dollars a year.

Most of the up to eight million dollars expected from a new Nevada sales tax will be given to the schools.

Ohio passed a 279-million appropriation for school aid.

Tax Latitude Given

Oklahoma and Texas passed bills giving school districts more latitude in taxation. Increased revenues from these measures will be used to build new facilities and raise teacher salaries.

Rhode Island voted $1,834,000 in additional state aid for teacher raises. Most of the increase will be matched by cities and towns.

South Dakota upped its education aid by one million dollars this year.

Utah sent 28 education bills through the Legislature. Among the most important were three bills to give more money to colleges and a $2,130,000 emergency relief fund as state aid to meet public school building needs.

Washington made 178 million dollars available for schools. This was an increase of 37 million dollars over the last two-year budget period. Wisconsin and Wyoming revised their school finance laws to provide more money for education.

He Kilt Him A B'ar; Now He's Raisin' A Fuss

By ALLAN MERRITT

OKAWVILLE, Ill. (AP) — A modern-day battle of the Alamo seems to be in the making, with descendants of Davy Crockett centering their firepower on merchandising rights.

The Crockett clan also is gunning for those who have insinuated that Davy was a delinquent boy, a shiftless, ignorant man, and something less than the king of the wild frontier.

Hired Lawyers

They've hired lawyers and formed the David Crockett Descendants Fund organized as a charitable trust, and have incorporated for money - making purposes as Crockett Kids, Inc.

The battle leader is Mrs. Margie Flowers Cohn of Okawville, who claims to be a great-great granddaughter of the famed Indian fighter. She says she represents about 100 descendants of Davy and his first wife, Polly Finley Crockett.

The money they expect to raise, Mrs. Cohn said, will be used "for the education and medical care of the needy descendants of Crockett."

Seek To Intervene

Walt Disney Enterprises and Morey Schwartz, a Baltimore clothier, have agreed to share each other's rights to the name Davy Crockett on merchandise — but they still have to contend with the newly - organized Crockett clan.

Mrs. Cohn and her associates have asked in Federal District Court that the Disney - Schwartz suits be reinstated. They want to intervene.

The new corporation has filed with the U.S. Patent Office an application to register as a trademark "Real Davy Crockett Kids," together with an insignia of crossed guns.

Four manufacturers of such items as hats, T-shirts, scarves and costume jewelry already have agreed to pay a five per cent fee for use of the trademark, Mrs. Cohn said.

Jamaica, Land Of Sun, Sand, Is Even Cooler

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — This Caribbean island has turned its sand and sun and scenery into a major industry.

Last year more than 120,000 tourists visited Jamacia. The tourist board hopes within five years to double the volume.

During the heat-wave months in the United States it often is cooler in Jamacia. Some of the mountain homes use fireplaces.

More Hearings On Redistricting Asked

A rehearing on a decision concerning school redistricting has been asked of the State Supreme Court by Hitchcock County.

The court recently handed down a decision stripping the State Committee on School District Reorganization of powers to veto redistricting plans undertaken by the petition method. F. B. Decker, state education commissioner, said the decision would set back "sane redistricting" in Nebraska by many years.

Rx: WEAR SHORTS

Dr. James T. Googe, city-county health director, who admits to a pair of knobby knees, says men's dress shorts are the best way to beat the heat.

He isn't planning to start a one-man campaign by wearing them, Dr. Googe says, but he'd be willing to go along with the crowd if somebody else did.

The wedding is planned for Saturday evening, Aug. 20, and the ceremony will be solemnized at the Northeast Congregational Church.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of the South Dakota School of Mines, and has accepted a position in Chile where he will take his bride to reside.

OF THIS AND THAT

THE WHOLE town is in the process of planning — planning for autumn, planning for school, planning for brides - elect, planning for travel — or guests — or both — and planning what to do next year if the weatherman's conduct doesn't improve.

* * *

WE'RE enthusiastic about travel this morning — just learned that Mr. and Mrs. John D. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Grainger of Salinas, Calif., will be off and away to Europe later this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Grainger are expected in Lincoln about Aug. 20 —and will remain just long enough for a brief visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Browne Jr. On Aug. 23 Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Grainger will leave for New York where, on Aug. 26, they will board the S.S. Kungsholm. After a stay in the Scandinavian countries the foursome will tour the continent.

* * *

LEARNED that Mrs. Rolla C. Van Kirk of Washington, D.C., arrived in Lincoln Tuesday evening and will spend a month visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burkett Van Kirk, and her mother, Mrs. E. J. Burkett. Mr. Van Kirk plans to come from Washington in about two weeks.

This evening Mrs. Van Kirk will be a dinner hostess at the University Club when she entertains members of the family and a group of close friends.

* * *

IN Lincoln briefly this week are Dr. and Mrs. Frank M. German, their son, Albert; and their daughters, Charity and Margery, who are Tuesday - to-Thursday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Stebbins.

It seems that the objective of the trek to Nebraska involved Albert German and his desire to have a first hand glimpse of the University of Nebraska College of Dentistry. There seems to be a little more than a remote possibility that Mr. German, now attending Yale University, may eventually come to Nebraska.

APROPOS OF guests — hear that Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Keim and their children, Kay and David, came from Ames Ia.. last week-end for a short stay as the guests of Mr. Keim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F D Keim — and Mrs. Keim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Neumann. The visitors from Ames were en route to the west coast where they will have a month's holiday and where Dr. Keim will attend the national agronomy meeting at Davis, Calif.

* * *

MORE new of Lincoln guests has to do with Mrs Frank Tallman and her son, Frank Jr., of Pueblo, Colo., who arrived in Lincoln Sunday evening to join the three young Tallman daughters, Sally, Betsy and Ann, who have been spending the past three weeks as the guests of their grandmother, Mrs Frank Boehmer — and their great-grandmother, Mrs. I. G. Chapin.

Mrs. Tallman and her family left Wednesday evening to re-return to Pueblo.

* * *

SOMEONE TOLD us that Mr. and Mrs. John Stebbins (the former Barbara Farnsworth) were in town for the week end — house hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins will come from Gothenburg, about Sept. 1 — in time for Mr. Stebbins to continue his studies at the University of Nebraska. We're told that the new Stebbins address is on Winthrop Road.

* * *

THE Brittin family — Mr. and Mrs. Robert — and their daughter, Miss Barbara Brittin, were off and away on a holiday Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Brittin are spending a few days in Colorado, but Miss Barbara Brittin is en route to California where she will spend two weeks as the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Letton Jr.

* * *

MINNESOTA'S contribution to the traveling news this morning involves Mrs. J. M. Clarke and Mrs. E. R. Heiny who are just home from a few weeks spent at Lake L'Hommedieu.

* * *

ALSO on the vacation roster are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rosenquist who are spending several weeks in Scottsbluff and other areas in the western part of the state.

* * *

MUST turn back to the guest book for a moment to tell you that Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Held and their three children, Harriet, Charles and Craig. will leave this morning to return to their home after a brief stay as the guests of Mr. Held's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Held.

Club Names New Officers

Members of the Lincoln Toastmistress Club met for dinner Monday evening at the Capital Hotel and elected Mrs. Chesta Beckwith treasurer of the club. Mrs. Beckwith succeeds Miss Edna Wilson who has moved from Lincoln.

Mrs. Marjorie Bennett, president, conducted the short meeting, after which Mrs. Mildred Webert presided as toastmistress for the evening. Program participants were Miss Ann Gustafson, "Where the Cool Breezes Blow;" Mrs. Beckwith, "Sterling Silver;" Mrs. Mildred Wood, "Cheese;" and Mrs. Angeline Camp, "Breakfast Is Ready."

Topic mistress during the dinner was Mrs. Josephine Eyen, and serving as general evaluator was Mrs. Florence Carrico.

The Brides' Book Says:

Announcing plans for her August wedding this morning is Miss Sharon Lee Oelling, who will become the bride of Elmer G. Heusinkvelt on Friday evening, Aug. 12. The service will take place at 7:30 o'clock at the Hallam Congregational Church.

Miss Janice Neu of Roca will attend Miss Oelling as maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be her sister, Miss Marilyn Oelling of Roca, and Mrs. Donald Madden of Princeton. Miss Linda Rotschafer will be the flower girl, and carrying the rings will be Richard Egger of Princeton.

Orville Heusinkvelt of Sprague will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers will be Lynn Heusinkvelt of Hallam, and Robert Gerlach of Clatonia.

Marilyn Krueger Mulder of Roca, who will become the bride of Wayne Winston Bradley of Omaha on Friday, Aug. 5., has announced the members of her bridal party for her wedding which will be solemnized in the presence of the members of the families at the First Presbyterian Church chapel in Omaha.

For her matron of honor and only attendant, the bride-to-be has named Mrs. Bryan Johnson of North Platte, and serving Mr. Bradley as best man will be James M. McGaffin Jr., of Omaha. The guests will be seated by Clarence Groth of Las Animas, Colo., and Lt. John W. Hickman of Omaha.

The bride-elect is a former student at the University of Nebraska and a graduate of the University of Nebraska School of Nursing. Her fiance is a graduate of the University of Missouri and a member of Delta Upsilon and Sigma Delta Chi.

If You think you are busy, listen to this: Ann James, whose approaching marriage to Farlowe Davis is announced this morning, has a few things on her mind. In the first place there is a wedding and all of its detail—plans, shopping and what not. But for Miss James that is only the beginning. In addition to her trousseau she must supply herself with enough hosiery to last three years; she can't purchase anything that is silk although she must include at least four formal gowns in her wardrobe. Not only must she decide upon which brand of washing machine and dryer; which Hi-Fi set, which records, and which radio she and the potential bridegroom want in their home, but she must take all of them with her.

Miss James' fiance, you see, is a mining engineer, and he has accepted a position in Chile, S. A., where he and his bride will reside for three years. All of the household appliances and other heavy pieces must go with the young couple when they take off—otherwise they never could have them. After they once are in Chile, we are told, there is a limit of 22 pounds and a value of $25 on parcels shipped to them.

Three years is a long time for an 18 year-old bride to be away from her friends and family, but we hear that Mrs. James plans to pay her daughter and son-in-law a visit next winter.

Club Plans Form A Prelude To Autumn

With the arrival of August, traditionally the month of vacations and family activities, there also is a beginning flurry of planning for the members of various women's organizations in the city who once again direct their thoughts to projects and programs and hastily - called committee meetings.

Preparations are under way for the opening meeting of the League of Women Voters of Lincoln which will begin a busy year of study and discussion on Thursday, Sept. 22. No definite schedule of regular monthly meetings has been prepared as yet, for this year the members plan to continue their study and development of the "Know Your Town" survey, to be completed early next spring.

Through the league's neighborhood study groups, problems of taxation and legislation of interest both on a local and national scale will be discussed by the members.

President of the Lincoln league is Mrs. W. C. Whittaker.

QUOTA CLUB PLANS

Members of the program committee of the Quota Club of Lincoln will meet in the very near future to complete plans for the club's philanthropic and civic activities for this year.

The organization's opening meeting of the fall will be held at 7:30 o'clock, Monday evening, Sept. 12, at the Hotel Cornhusker, and a highlight of the evening's program will be the initiation of the club's newest member, Miss Lucille Cypreansen of the University of Nebraska speech department faculty.

President of the Quota Club is Mrs. Loretto Walker.

ALTRUSA CLUB TEA

The beginning of fall activities for the Altrusa Club members will be held late in September when the group will entertain at a formal tea. The tea will be followed by the first regular business meeting with Mrs. Esther Lamborn, club president, presiding.

SECRETARIES TO MEET

Also officially opening their year's activities in September will be the members of the Cornhusker Chapter of the National Secretaries Association who will meet on the second Monday of the month to hear a report on the organization's international convention held at Chattanooga, Tenn., in July. The report will be given by Miss Dorothy Beever, chapter president, Mrs. Ruth Murphy, Mrs. Effie Wilson and Miss Katherine Gies, all of whom attended the convention.

On Thursday, Aug. 4, Miss Beever will preside at a meeting of the board and will give a resume of the convention activities.

Late summer plans of the chapter also include an informal picnic supper to be held next Monday evening at South Bend. In charge of arrangements is Martha Rebensdorft.

OCTOBER PROGRAMS

It may seem a long time until October but many women's organizations have completed program plans for their opening meetings that month. On Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 4, Mrs. J. O. Hertzler will be hostess to the members of the Tuesday Travel Club at her home, 1650 So. 20th. Mrs. Arthur Westbrook, the club's new secretary, will be in charge of the program for the afternoon.

And planning their first program of the fall season for the second Thursday in October are the members of the Thursday Morning Musical Review who will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. W. D. Reel.

The program will be under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Ekwall, program chairman, and will include flute duets by Mrs. Clark Thomas and Mrs Richard White and musical numbers by Mrs. Murray Spurgeon, soprano, and Mrs. Gilbert Sechrist, violinist.

Has Meeting

The members of Gamma Gamma Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority met Monday evening at the home of Miss Shirley Naber.

A report was given on the chapter's recent bake sale, held Saturday, July 30, and Miss Eunice Jensen presided at the business meeting when the group discussed plans for philanthropic projects and fund-raising programs for the coming year.

A guest for the evening was Miss Dee Finigan, a member of the sorority's city council.

Mrs. Adam Krieger and her daughters, Miss Joyann Krieger and Mrs. Loren Powell, returned home on Tuesday evening from Grand Rapids, Mich., where they had been the house guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Paul Strauch, and Mr. Strauch.

It May not be just around the corner, but autumn is lurking somewhere in the distant shadows—and one of the most interesting preludes to autumn is the arrival of new members of the academic staff at the University of Nebraska. Some of the new families already are here, and we hear there are many more to come between now and the first 8 o'clock on the Nebraska campus.

This morning we welcome Dr. and Mrs. John H. Hopper and their six months-old son, Britt, who are in the throes of moving and settling in their new home at 1127 No. 51st St. Dr. Hopper, who received his doctorate at the University of Illinois in June, will be assistant professor of animal husbandry at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture.

We're sure we shall like the Hoppers—They arrived in Lincoln during 100 degree-plus temperatures and never once did they complain about the weather. But both Dr. and Mrs. Hopper are natives of Arkansas—and perhaps even Arkansas has its warm days. Anyway, Dr. Hopper hopes to get in a bit of Nebraska fishing before his classroom activities begin.

Microfilming Urged For County Court Records

Could Cut Duplicating Cost, Save On Space For Storage

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

The micro-filming of Lancaster County Court records for permanent files has been recommended to the County Board.

Judge Herbert Ronin, in a report requested by the commissioners, suggested that micro-filming equipment be obtained on a 30-day trial basis.

His report estimated court records could be preserved at a cost of less than one cent a page as compared with the present cost of 31 cents.

Additionally, the court uses about 30 binders a year, costing $25 apiece, for permanent records.

Micro-filming would solve the lack of storage space now facing the court.

Judge Ronin said 250 volumes of probate records, copied for permanent files, are now stored in the Courthouse attic for lack of vault space.

"The attic is not immune to fire," the judge added.

Efficiency Cited

Greater office efficiency was also cited. A time lapse of two or three days is now required before court files can be copied by the county photostat department and attorneys cannot check out a case file until then.

Only probate files and guardianship bonds are now photostated because of inadequate facilities. All other court records which must be permanently preserved are copied by typists.

If these records were microfilmed, the stenographic work load would be reduced, Judge Ronin pointed. An additional stenographer has been requested because of the office's increased workload.

Few Checks

Micro-filming would be ideal for court documents which must be permanently preserved in case of loss or destruction of the originals. The permanent record is only occasionally consulted by court personnel or attorneys.

Judge Ronin estimated equipment cost at approximately $1,400 and that operational costs would be well within savings that could be effected by microfilming.

Judge Ronin made the recommendation only for county court records, but poinced out that micro-county records could probably be found equally as adviseable.

Others Use It

He pointed out that county governments in the East use micro-filming also in the offices of the register of deeds, county clerk, and county superintendent.

While many records of other Lancaster County offices are preserved by photostating, many offices are faced with lack of vault space and have some records stored in the attic.

Probably much burdensome copy work and bulky records could be reduced by microfilming in other offices, Judge Ronin said.

The County Board is expected to take action on the report next Tuesday.

Runoff Seen In Mississippi Primary Vote

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Paul Johnson, making his third bid for the post once held by his father, and Atty. Gen. J. P. Coleman apparently were headed Wednesday into a runoff for the Democratic nomination for governor of Mississippi.

Johnson ,a Hattiesburg attorney, held a 7,000-vote lead over the attorney general with 1,630 of 1,852 precincts reported.

Big Leads

Both held comfortable leads over former Gov. Fielding Wright, founder of the 1948 States Right party.

Under Mississippi election laws, if no candidate receives a majority in the first Democratic primary the two leading candidates face each other in a runoff.

The top two men will begin campaigning Thursday for the Aug. 23 second Democratic primary. Democratic nomination means election in Mississippi. The Republicans haven't indicated whether they will oppose the Democratic nominee in the November general election.

Ross Barnett, Jackson attorney, trailed Wright. Mrs. Mary Cain, a newspaper editor who promised lower taxes, finished fifth in the five-candidate field. She conceded earlier.

Ex-Lincolnite Mrs. Anne Tout Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Anne Tout, 78, of Grand Island and formerly of Lincoln, will be held in Lincoln Friday.

Dr. Frank A. Court will officiate at the 2 p.m. services at Hodgman-Splain.

Burial will be in Panama, Neb.

Mrs. Tout was the widow of Charles H. Tout. She died in Grand Island Tuesday, where she had lived with her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Myers, for two years.

Her Lincoln address had been Rt. 6.

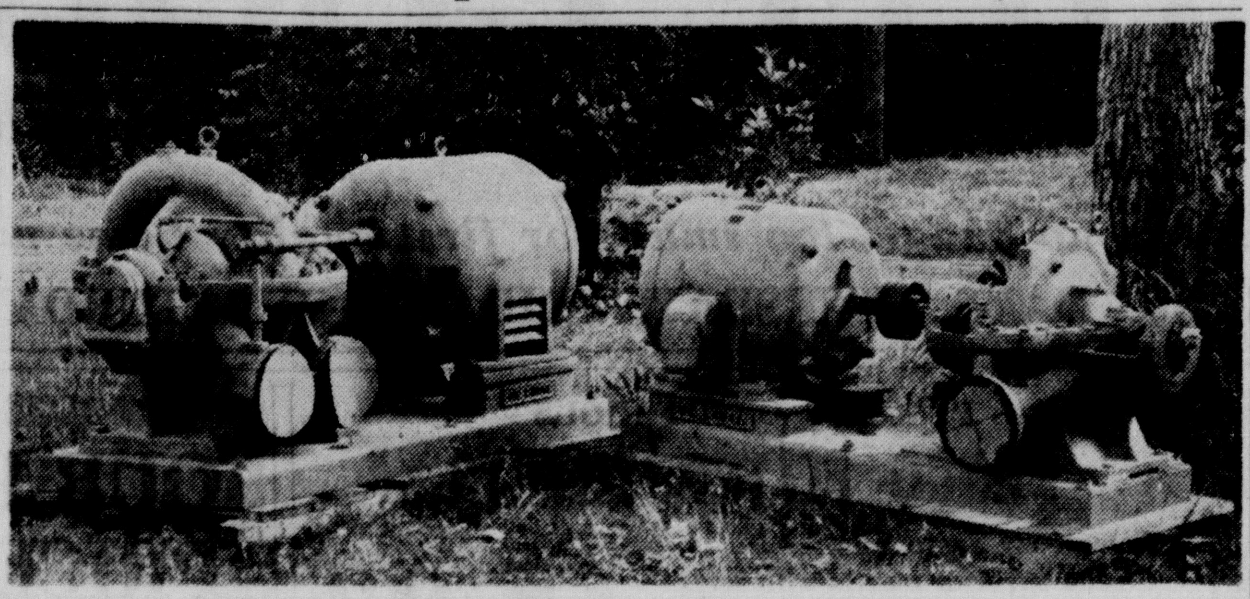
Also surviving are two sons, Vern of Lincoln and Warne of Los Angeles, Calif., and six grandchildren.

Two Schoolhouses Have Break-Ins

Break-ins of two Lancaster County schoolhouses have been reported to the Sheriffs' office. Entrance was gained to both buildings by forcing door locks with a crowbar.

Taken from the school located three-fourths of a mile east of Sprague was a record player and large electric fan. The loss was estimated at $160.

Nothing was apparently taken from District 76 schoolhouse, located about 1½ miles south of the State Penitentiary. However, desks and drawers were ransacked.



Pumps Waiting To Water Fairways

City Engineer Carl Fisher says the pumps have not been put into use to carry water to the course watering system because of other pressing work. He says the pumps should be installed by Sept. 15. LAFB Land Deal Still Possible

Lincoln Star Special

WASHINGTON—Adjournment of Congress was not expected to interfere with the Senate Armed Services Committee approval of "friendly condemnation" by the Air Fore of land for a housing projet at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

According to a committee member, a number of military real estate acquistion requests were to be acted upon before Senate members take leave of Washington.

Only Senate and House Armed Service Committees approval of the LAFB action was needed by the Air Force. The former already approved the Lincoln request.

The Air Force plans to acquire a large tract of land at the south end of Huskerville on the west side of B Ave. Some 600 housing units are planned for the area.

Capitol To Be Rewired

Mr. Schnirl was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital Wednesday morning by ambulance from Grainger Bros., wholesale grocers at 9th and O.

Grainger Bros. employes said Mr. Schnirl made a purchase and walked over to a loading platform. He collapsed and fell off the platform about five feet to the ground, they said.

He was later pronounced dead at the hospital. Attendants said the apparent cause was heart trouble.

AF Moves To Speed Up Plane Development

To Meet Russian Progress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force announced Wednesday a speed-up search for three types of faster and longer-ranged jet planes.

In announcing the award of development contracts to six manufacturers for new long range interceptors, fighter bombers and tactical bombers, an Air Force spokesman said:

"We are looking for these planes as fast as we can get them."

The note of urgency appeared to be prompted by reports that the Russians seem to be developing new military aircraft in considerably less time than the United States has been able to do in the past.

An Air Force spokesman said on this point that the method adopted for the development for the three types of new planes should cut down the time between the drawing board and full production as much as one or two years. The present production cycle averages from six years to eight years.

Development contracts have been awarded to Lockheed Aircraft Corp., Northrop Aircraft Inc., and North American Aviation Inc., for a long-range interceptor.

Development contracts for a new fighter-bomber went to the Republic Aviation Corp., and North American. Work on a new tactical bomber will be done by the Glenn L. Martin Co., and Douglas Aircraft Co.

The Air Force said it will select the best product in each of the three fields for full production.

These development contracts require the manufacturers to produce complete design drawings, wind tunnel testing data and possibly a hand-built working model.

This type of contract contrasts with the past practice of conducting a design competition among aircraft builders which produced only drawings on paper. After studying such designs the Air Force has then ordered additional work done in the long process of transferring designs from the drawing boards to models that could be tested in wind tunnels.

The Air Force withheld the exact amount involved in the six development projects, but a spokesman said several million dollars were involved.

Man Will Try To Make Moonlight With Rocket

LINCOLN, Mass. (AP) — The Cambridge Air Force Research Center said Wednesday that artificial moonlight may be created by a rocket to be fired 60 miles into the atmosphere at Holloman Air Development Center, Holloman, N. M., the week of Oct. 14.

Experts said one of the aims is to clear up some of the mysteries about atmosphere composition at that height.

Check Sodium Layer

In Washington, the Air Force said the main purpose of the project will be to test the accuracy of scientific beliefs that a layer of natural sodium hangs in the thin atmosphere.

Scientists believe sodium may be present because of a glow high in the sky caused by the reflection of the sunlight on minute particles of sodium.

An Aevobee rocket, which was used in similar tests in New Mexico last January, will carry a few pounds of sodium to be released as vapor at the desired altitude.

The Aevobee is the only rocket currently used for high altitude weather research, a Cambridge Air Force Research Center spokesman said, and has been in use five years.

Experts said they hoped the man-made moonlight will glow, at least for a short time, with a brilliance comparable to that of the earth's real moon at twilight.

Results of the experiment, the Air Force said, might also supply data for the manmade earth satellite that the U.S. plans to hurl into space between 200 and 300 miles from the earth in 1957.

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower pinned the Medal of Freedom on Robert B. Anderson Wednesday for his "brilliant performance" as deputy secretary of defense and secretary of the Navy. The President told Anderson, who is leaving the No. 2 defense post Friday, he expects to recall him at some future date for further service to his country.

Drop Charge Against Wife Who Killed Her Husband's Girl Friend

WASHINGTON (AP) — A charge of assault with a deadly weapon filed against a mother of four who shot and killed her husband's girl friend was dismissed Wednesday.

The dismissal, in Municipal Court, came after Willis Haynes, 32, refused to testify against his wife.

Mrs. Haynes, 28, was charged with threatening her husband with the gun in the apartment where his girl friend, Nancy Penton, 19, was shot.

After Mrs. Haynes appeared as her own attorney at a hearing, a coroner's jury decided the shooting of Miss Penton July 19 was accidental.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Jensen's 2-Run Double Tips Loop Leaders 6-4

Red-Hot Boston Only Three Games Off Pace After Win In Tense Tilt

BOSTON (AP) — Jackie Jensen's dramatic two-run double in the eighth inning gave the Boston Red Sox a 6-4 victory over first-place Chicago Wednesday in a tense battle.

Chicago maintained its one-game lead in the hectic American League pennant race as Cleveland edged New York 2-1 to tie the Yankees for second place. Boston is three games out.

With the score tied 4-4, two out and the count two strikes, Jensen powered a long drive off reliefer Dixie Howell that landed in the wide open spaces in right center.

The play was set up when Billy Goodman singled and advanced on first baseman Walt Dropo's error on an attempted pickoff. Billy Klaus struck out but Ted Williams was given an intentional pass.

Tom Hurd, Boston's fine righthander fireman, finished the job in the ninth. He struck out pinch-hitter Gil Coan and got pinch-hitter Bob Kennedy and Minnie Minoso on routine grounders. Minoso hit two home runs in the losing cause.

Hurd came on in the seventh to replace starter Mel Parnell—allowing no hits and one walk in 2 1-3 innings.

The Red Sox pulled even 4-4 with an unearned run in the seventh inning. Jensen singled to left and when the ball got by Minoso for an error, Jackie pulled up at second. Norm Zauchin walked and Howell—third Chicago hurler—replaced southpaw Morrie Martin.

Sammy White hit what looked like a double play ball at second baseman Nellie Fox but it rolled through him for the second error of the frame and Jensen dashed home to knot the count.

Lary 2-Hitter Beats Solons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Detroit tightened the American League pennant race Wednesday night, defeating Washington 3-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Frank Lary, who hurled the Tigers within 6½ games of pace-setting Chicago.

Roy Sievers singled to start the Senators' second inning and their last hit was obtained when Ed FitzGerald singled to open the bottom of the third. Lary retired 17 batters in order before Ernie Oravetz walked in the ninth inning, and the 24-year-old righthander permitted no hits in the last 6 2-3 innings. Lary leveled his record at 11-11.

Jim Delsing and Fred Hatfield sparked the Tigers' eight-hit attack against Bob Porterfield, who was dealt a 14th defeat. He has won nine. Hatfield belted a home run and double, while Delsing contributed a triple and double.

Denver Drives To Association Lead

From Press Dispatches

Denver battled to a 6-4 victory in 11 innings at Charleston Wednesday night and moved into first place in the torrid American Association for the first time this season.

The Bears jumped to the top as Minneapolis fell at St. Paul, 12-3. Minneapolis was in first place only one night.

Toledo went to second on an 8-4 victory over Omaha. Louisville and Indianapolis fought to an 8-8 tie, game called at the end of the ninth.

Beckman In Sweep

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia. (AP) — Lloyd Beakman, Lincoln race driver scored a sweep for the third time this year in the Playland Park auto races Wednesday night. He won the heat race, speed dash and the main event.

Scott Frost Cops Stakes In Two Heats

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP) — Speedy Scott Frost from California, the odds-on favorite, won the $86,863.32 Hambletonian Stake in two spectacular heats Wednesday, hanging up the fastest time in the famed sulky derby since his daddy, Hoot Mon, won the event in 1947.

The result of the 30th buggy whip classic was no great surprise to a sweltering crowd estimated at 16,000 but everyone in cramped Good Time Park knew it was a horse race that will long be remembered.

First off, the big striding bay colt owned by Sol Camp of Shafter, Calif., had to go all out to grab the first heat from 10 rivals, coming down the stretch to beat out a 21-1 shot named Leopold Hanover by a half-length.

Pressed to Win

Then, with everyone expecting Scott Frost to really chill his opposition in the second mile spin an hour later, little Joe O'Brien had to rely on all of his driving skill and the heart of a real champion to grab a head verdict over Galophone, the second choice in the betting.

Scott Frost's clocking for the second dash was 2:00 3-5, which compared with the Hambletonian record of 2:00 minutes flat set by his illustrious sire eight years ago. Scott Frost's first heat was timed in 2:01 3-5, but he wasn't fully extended as he was when Galophone pressed him to the limit in the stretch in the second go-around.

Hoot Mon's second heat was 2:02 1-5, so sonny boy was traveling at a good clip himself.

A's, Orioles In Even Break

BALTIMORE (AP) — Rookie Bob Hale stepped in as a pinch hitter with two strikes against him and smashed a two-run double in the ninth inning as the Baltimore Orioles defeated Kansas City Wednesday night 4-3 in the first game of a twi-night doubleheader.

But the Athletics came back quickly in the second game to push over three runs in the first inning and coast to a 5-1 decision behind lefty Alex Kellner's seven-hit pitching.

The first game will start at 6:30 p.m.

'All Is Not Lost' For Pioneers

Despite present conditions, all is not lost so far as the present burned fairways at Pioneers Golf Course are concerned.

Considerable criticism has been leveled at the city for failure to have the planned watering system for the course in operation before now. The necessary pumps for the system have been on hand for three weeks but installation has lagged.

But despite this, Pioneers manager, John Peterson reminds that the course is no worse off this year than it has been in the past and there is still some grass left.

"We are not losing much from the lack of a watering system," he said, "but we are not gaining anything."

According to Peterson, the situation at Pioneers will be materially improved, even for next summer, if the watering system is ready as promised by city officials early in September. This, Peterson said, will be in time for an early fall planting of seed which will, with adequate water, develop a good root system before the winter freeze arrives.

Good fall watering, he said, will stop most of the usual winter kill of blue grass.

While a summer watering program would have been very desirable, he said, it cannot truthfully be said that the lack of it has created a hopeless situation.

City Engineer Carl Fisher explained that the completion of the watering system is behind schedule because of other pressing work. The engineering department, he said, has simply not had time to prepare the plans and specifications needed to complete the job.

So far as effort required to be expended by the department is concerned, Fisher said, this has been the most demanding summer on record. It has been a job, he said, just seeing to it that water is available in new homes when the buyers moved in.

A contractor is now working on the booster pumping station that will house one of the new pumps involved. This will be the pump that takes the water from the line leading to the course.

The booster pump will transfer the water to the storage lake where the second pump will take over and distribute the water through the water system.

Scottsbluff Four-State Meet Is Next

Lincoln Star Special

GRAND ISLAND — The Lincoln Optimists beat Omaha Metz, 11-5, to win the State American Legion Junior baseball championship Wednesday night, blowing a three-run lead and rallying on Al Newbill's three-run homer in the seventh inning.

The Optimists will represent Nebraska in the four-state regional tournament starting at Scottsbluff, Monday, Aug. 15.

In winning, the Optimists gave Lincoln its first championship since 1952.

It also gave coach Stan Ebner a championship in his first assignment.

Lincoln took advantage of early wildness by Metz pitcher Joe Toledo to get three runs in the first inning.

Toledo walked the first three men in the inning, and Yogi Hergenrader singled down the right field line to score one run. A base hit by Larry Spadt accounted for two more.

The only two errors Lincoln committed cost them the lead when Metz scored five times in the fourth.

Jerry Vodicka beat out an infield hit and Duane Steffen issued two walks to load the bases.

Sam DeGeorge unloaded them with a triple to center field. DeGeorge socred on Wayne Hester's error.

The fifth run came after an infield hit and Spadt's muff of a fly ball.

In the seventh, Toledo walked the first two men and John Douthit beat out a drag bunt to load the bases. One run scored when Jerry Gould dropped John Lutz's fly ball to center field.

The rally almost ended with a triple play as Hergenrader lined a shot to third baseman Larry Kozeny who doubled Krhounek off third.

Gruenemeier, VanBloom To Battle For City Title

Two boys who were trailing on the late holes stroked to comeback victories in semi-final matches Wednesday and today will clash for the city Junior Boys' Golf Tournament championship at Pioneers.

Medalist Glen Gruenemeier, a bright tournament favorite because of his sharp qualifyng round of 78, caught Bill Arledge on the seventeenth green and won a 1-up victory on the eighteenth hole.

Jon Van Bloom eliminated Steve Miller, 2-up, but the winner was trailing after fifteen holes and survived on the quality of his best shooting of the day.

Gruenemeier cracked out an 85 against Arledge. The slim Pioneers golfing youngster was 2-down at No. 12, tied the match on No. 14, lost No. 16 and halved the match again on No. 17.

Gruenemeier drove 220 yards on the crucial eighteenth, a par-four hole. His second shot went into a depression and his third was 20 yards from the cup.

He chipped within four feet of the hole and was down in a bogey for the win. Arledge was two over.

Gruenemeier and Van Bloom will play this morning at 8:30.

Ken Filbert made the First Flight finals on a 2-up triumph over Dick Harr. Bill Roper eliminated Jere Carey, 3-2.

Aubrey Becker took out Dick Doty, 2-1, and will face Charles Harlamert for the Second Flight crown. Harlamert deefated Dennis Casper, 4-2.

John Mills won the best match of the day when he stopped shorter Bill Harder on the twentieth hole, 1-up. Lynn Knickerbacker will play Mills for the Third Flight title after beating Kent Crate Wednesday, 5-3.

Mike Clair reached the Fourth Flight finals on a 3-2 win over Bob Bettenhausen. Bill Gibson beat Tom Reigert in the other match, 3-1.

Chip Schwartzkopf fell before Lynn Peterson in the Fifth Flight, 2-up. Bob Nitz beat Bill Power on the eighteenth, 1-up.

Ex-Yankee Woodling Stars With Two-Run Homer; Decider Today

NEW YORK (AP)—A two-run homer by ex-Yankee Gene Woodling and a superb four-hit pitching performance by Mike Garcia gave the Cleveland Indians a 2-1 victory over the New York Yankees Wednesday in their important series for second place in the American League.

The Cleveland victory knotted the series at one game each with the decider scheduled today.

Woodling peddled to Baltimore last November and picked up by the Indians in June of this year hit his game-deciding smash in the fourth inning scoring Al Smith who walked.

With one ball on him and no strikes Woodling picked out one of fireballer Bob Turley's fast balls and sent it into the lower right field stands. It was his fifth homer of the year. It was one of three hits off loser Turley who was replaced by Jim Konstanty.

Garcia in recording his eighth victory against 10 defeats had big Yankee bats swinging futily through the first eight innings.

He was taken out in the ninth when Manager Al Lopez of the Indians juggled pitchers frantically to protect the slim lead. After Mickey Mantle opened the ninth with a single Garcia was replaced by Don Mossi who pitched to only one man before being succeeded in turn by Ray Narleski who struck out Eddie Robinson for the final out.

Garcia had an uncomfortable moment in the sixth when he filled the bases with one out. But he escaped with only one run scored against him.

He made Yogi Berra hit into a force out and Elston Howard fly to left. Howard played left field for the Yankees in place of Irv Noren who aggravated his sore knee in Tuesday night's game.

Chiefs Are Losers 5-2; Soos Next

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Wichita swept the series with Lincoln here Wednesday night winning a 5 to 2 ball game in which four double plays cut down the scoring after the teams got 20 safe hits and numerous walks.

Bob Harrison, in fanning nine batters, stretched his lead in the league strikeout race to 173. He weakened some in the late innings, but strikeouts and two runners caught off base helped him out of a jam.

George Hallow, who was recently benched for poor hitting, snapped out with a double and triple to drive in two runs.

Two runners caught off base hurt Lincoln's chances. One of the tags, that of Joe Christopher in the sixth, brought on an argument.

Colorado Springs comes to Wichita Thursday for a doubleheader, while Lincoln goes to Sioux City. Manager Bill Burwell said he was undecided on the starting pitcher for the Chiefs.

Cubs, Bucs Split Pair

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates split a pair of one-run thriller baseball games Wednesday.

The Pirates took a 3-2 decision in the opener on Jerry Lynch's pinch two-base hit with two mates aboard.

Chicago won the nightcap, 5-4, on catcher Harry Chiti's two-out single in the 12th inning.

This was the Cubs' 11th split in 19 doubleheaders this season.

Vern Law, the last of three Pittsburgh pitchers, drew the second-game loss.

The Cubs fashioned the winning spurt on Jim King's second double among four hits. Randy Jackson was purposely passed before Frank Thomas made a fine running catch of Eddie Miksis' long liner.

Both King and Jackson moved up on a wild pitch before Chiti drove the ball over Dick Hall, the Pirates' third center fielder of the game.

Hall's presence in the game was an oddity. After pitching and winning the series opener here Monday, Hall came aboard as an unproductive pinch batter in the 11th and then watched Chiti's clout sail over his head as King raced home with the winning run.

Giants Score 4th Straight

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lefty John (Windy) McCall weathered two home runs by Bill Virdon Wednesday night to pitch the New York Giants to their fourth straight victory and hand the St. Louis Cardinals a sixth succesive setback, 5-3.

McCall, who has gained three of five 1955 triumphs at the Redbirds' expense, yielded seven hits, but did not walk a batter and would have had a shutout except for three runs driven in on Virdon's 13th and 14th homers of the season.

The Giants, meanwhile, bunched five successive hits to set up four runs in a decisive fifth inning as they handed an eighth defeat to Larry Jackson, St. Louis rookie righthander who has won five times.

Whitey Lockman led New York's attack with three singles and Henry Thompson whacked his 13th homer and a single against a slump-shackled St. Louis club that has scored only 6 runs on 29 hits in its last 5 games.

Roberts Cops 17th Victory

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Philadelphia Phils, who had gone through 23 1-3 innings without scoring a run against Cincinnati, burst forth for eight runs, seven of them unearned, in the sixth inning Wednesday night and an 8-4 victory over the Redlegs. Robin Roberts chalked up his 17th triumph of the season for the Phils.

Jackie Collum seemed well on his way to another Redleg victory when Phil singles and a Cincinnati fielding collapse produced the winning runs for Phiadelphia.

In that hectic sixth, Richie Ashburn rapped out two singles and Granny Hamner, Del Ennis, Eddie Waitkus and Roberts one each.

Gil's Homers Defeat Braves

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Gil Hodges smacked two mighty home runs, including the 11th grand slammer of his major league career, and drove in six runs Wednesday night to power Brooklyn to a 9-6 win over the Milwaukee Braves and increase its National League lead to 14½ games.

The Braves rallied in the last of the ninth, scoring three runs to the roars of a crowd of 42,747—third largest of the season at County Stadium — but were squelched by reliefer Clem Labine.

Rookie Don Bessent won the game in relief—his fourth victory against no losses.

WL Will Talk Over Wichita Issue

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Wichita's possible transfer from the Class A Western League to the Class AA Texas League will be discussed at a Western League directors' meeting later this month ,Ralph Winegarner ,secretary, said Wednesday.

Just back from a tour of the Western's six clubs, Winegarner said all favor such a meeting but that it probably can't be held before Aug. 20.

"If we're going to operate the Western League next year," he said, "we need two more clubs. We're scattered out now, and traveling conditions are a bit rough—so we can't scatter it out too much farther." That also will be discussed.

Winegarner said "there is no combined move in the Western League to battle the Texas League going into Wichita." But the other members are curious about Wichita's plans, and about mention of Wichita as a possible recipient of the Beaumont franchise in the Texas League, he said.

Winegarner added:

"One thing is sure. The Texas League couldn't operate in Wichita under the conditions in which the Western League club has."

Winegarner said he referred to the "high park rental cost"; also to the two 20-day road trips the Wichita Indians now must schedule because the Wichita park is reserved by contract for the state semipro baseball tournament in July, and again for the national semipro tourney in August.

Hastings Midgets Cop State Title

GRAND ISLAND (AP) — Hastings Wednesday night won the Nebraska American Legion midget baseball championship, beating McCook, 4-1.

McCook got but one hit off John Glass of Hastings. That was a first inning single by Burdette Malleck.

Hastings put the game away in the first inning when George Fuller tripled in two runs. Hastings collected six hits off Dick Kraft and Jim Jordan.

Game Permits Are Available

Like to hunt big game?
Willing to travel?

If the answer is "yes," you'll be stalking Nebraska deer or antelope with a hunting permit in your back pocket when the season opens this fall.

The State Game Commission has revealed that everyone who submitted a valid application for a big game hunting permit will receive one this year.

Available permits exceed applications—6,250 to 5,909 deer and 1,000 to 891 antelope—but permits are issued on the basis of residence and some areas in Nebraska had more applications than permits.

So hunters who are shut out in their own areas can travel into other areas where applications were lower than permits.

Areas Three and Four held deer permit drawings while Area Three drew for antelope permits.

In order to issue the complete number of permits authorized, the Commission will accept deer applications in Areas One and Two and antelope applications in Areas One, Two and Three until Aug. 12.

State law prohibits persons who held permits in 1953 and 1954 to apply for permits this year. This has been advanced as one reason for the decline in total applications.

Tireless Hurricane Swarms To Unanimous Win Over Ez

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, a tireless dancing man, swarmed over Ezzard Charles Wednesday night and shook off the former champion's heavy bombs to win a unanimous decision in a fiercely-fought 10-round match at War Memorial Auditorium.

The perpetual motion kid from New York jigged in his corner, did knee bends and calisthenics and shuffled "Off To Buffalo" while Charles plodded on, looking for the one punch that might end it.

Although the 34-year-old Charles hit Jackson with everything he had, landed cleanly on the chin with his right and dug the left to the body, he never could bring him down.

Instead of dropping, the Hurricane would fade back for a second and then resume his constant flicking jab. In the final round they really went at it, Charles shooting the works with every punch he threw.

But, at the end, while they were waiting for the decision, the Hurricane was dancing around, shadow boxing in his red, white and blue robe and looking as mad as a wet hen because he couldn't fight 15 or 20 more rounds.

Referee Ruby Goldstein scored it 6-4, Judge Dick Fazio had it 8-2 and Judge Ted Shiels 6-2-2 all for Jackson.

Charles started out as though he were going to deflate the Hurricane as quickly as Nino Valdes had done a year ago. He handled Jackson with the greatest of ease in the first, spinning him with a right to the chin and hooking to the body.

Fall Hunt Outlook Optimistic

Present indications of game populations indicates a rather optimistic outlook for the forthcoming hunting season, according to Lloyd Vance, Supervisor of Game Management, Nebraska Game Commission.

Stressing the fact that this is based on preliminary reports, he said, "Of course the picture could change entirely in the next few weeks. But, if we are forunate, the whole state picture looks encouraging.

"There are some local exceptions," he pointed out. "We have had a good spring for reproduction of almost every kind of small game animal and bird in the state. About the only species that is down on reproduction would be the local ducks. Drought and low water has cut the Sandhill duck breeding population. However, the reports from major breeding grounds in Canada are good," he explained.

He briefly summarized the present small game situation as follows:

Pheasants: Nesting success has been real good. Reproduction level same or even higher than last year, according to preliminary reports.

Quail: Reproduction as good or better than in 1954; which was peak production year.

Grouse: Some indications that 1954 breeding population took big drop; partially compensated by good breeding production. Too early to tell conclusively about present breeding success.

Rabbits: Another peak production year for the wily cottontails. Early hunters should have top hunting.

Vance emphasized that, "These observations are based on preliminary findings and the whole state picture could change rapidly. The next thing we are watching for is the survival of the broods. With reasonable brood survival, we can look forward to probably better seasons this coming fall. If we knew what the survivay rate was, we could set the seasons right now."

Guide Rock won the Wymore Class B tourney on a 7-1 victory over Syracuse. Wayne beat Valley at Tekamah, 11-8.

Commission Gives Pollution Warning

After several recent incidents involving cleaning of liquid ammonia fertilizer tanks in streams stocked with game fish; a Game Commission spokesman issued a warning against such practices.

According to Nebraska law, it is unlawful to dump or drain any refuse into any waters of the state, he said. The word refuse is specifically defined to cover all substances which are injurious to aquatic life; including raw sewage from cesspools and septic tanks.

The fine for this offense is limited to a maximum of $1,000 for each offense. But, the law also states that each day the unlawful act continues or is permitted to continue, shall constitute a separate offense

Use of explosives or poisons; with the intent to kill, stun or take fish is covered by a similar law but the penalty is stiffer. In addition to a fine, $200 minimum and $1,000 maximum, the violator can be imprisoned for not less than one year or more than three years.

Belgian Sets World Record In 800 Meters

OSLO (AP)—Roger Moens, brilliant young Belgian runner, Wednesday broke the world track record that has lasted the longest of all when he ran 800 meters in 1:45.7. He finished only a stride ahead of Audun Boysen of Norway who was timed in 1:45.9.

The mark that both exceeded was 1:46.6 set by Rudolf Harbig of Germany in 1939. In individual running races the only older world record is :10.2 for 100 meters set by Jesse Owens of the United States in 1936 but since then tied by five men.

Moens joined the lengthening list of men who have shattered distance records this year pointing to a brilliant Olympic Games in Melbourne in 1956. Records all the way from 400 meters to 3 miles have been smashed some of them several times.

Moens is no flash in the pan. On June 29 he ran 800 meters on a wet track at Nurenberg in 1:47 only four-tenths slower than Harbig's mark which was considered by many experts one of the best on the books.

Earlier this year Lon Spurrier of California ran the 880 yards in 1:47.5 to better the world mark. This is almost exactly the same distance as 800 meters.

Moens' feat came as the climax of a two-day international track and field meet in Bislet Stadium that attracted a crowd of 12,000.

'56 To Be Different—Soviets Gymnasts To Lose A Few Points

By TED SMITS

NEW YORK (AP) — Remember all the talk of how Russia almost won the 1952 Olympic Games at Helsinki because of the heavy Soviet point scoring in gymnastics?

Things will be different at the 1956 games. For one thing, there won't be so many points to be scored in gymnastics. For another, Russia will have much sterner competition.

"Japan will break up the stranglehold of Russia on gymnastic prizes," says Roy E. Moore, chairman of the AAU and Olympic committee on gymnastics.

"And since Helsinki, when the Russians won so much, the Olympic governing body has ruled no person can win two medals on the basis of only one performance. The Russians did a lot of that at Helsinki."

At Helsinki it was possible for a gymnast to compete in an individual event and then have his performance count in the all-around championship, thereby doubling up on the medals.

Officially, the Olympics are conducted strictly on an individual basis, but an official point score is kept on a 10-5-4-3-2-1 point basis for each event in which a gold medal is awarded. Using this scale the United States won the last Olympics with 614 points to 553½ for Russia. Russia scored 95½ points in women's gymnastics and 92½ in men's. The United States failed to score in this sport.

"Japan finished fifth to the Russians at Helsinki," says Moore. "In the last world championships they finished second. The Japanese are really amateurs and great gymnasts. They practice six hours a day and aren't tired. Our boys practice two hours and act fatigued."

"I am fighting right no wagainst Olympic gymnasts working in teams," he said. "As it is, there are eight on a team and six of them score. I believe I have about sold the idea of competing in mixed squads, as in track.

"Now they march in with their flag and compete in a team—it makes things too nationalistic. At the big gymnastic meet in Frankfurt in April we mixed 'em up and it worked over well. I'd like to see the Olympic gymnastics more on agility than strength."

Platters Win 12-8

KEARNEY (AP) — North Platte trimmed Kearney, 12-8, in the first game of a Nebraska Independent League playoff Series here in a game that saw six homers hit. George Lebedz hit one with one on in the ninth and Lucky Thurman got one in the same inning with two on as North Platte sewed up the game. Matt Sepich homered for Kearney with two on in the ninth and Frank Sajevic got one with the bases loaded in the first.

Russians Lose

LONDON (AP) — Hungary defeated Russia 5-3 in a water polo match at the Youth Sports Festival in Poland, Warsaw Radio reported Wednesday.

STAN DELAPLANE'S
POSTCARD

I have been spending a good deal of money on gasoline lately. But not without unusual returns. I have a glove compartment full of tickets which entitle me to waffle irons or other household appliances.

The gas stations are deep in the age of giveaways. I hardly ever shop for gasoline because it is cracked or has a new built-in discovery that gives power! I shop my gasoline according to my household needs.

I have an envelope in my car. The edge if it is numbered. Each time I get a fill of gas, they punch out the number. When the edge looks like lace curtain they will open the envelope. Inside, it tells what my prize will be.

It is a good deal like waiting for Christmas. I have tried steaming open the envelope secretly but the gas station people stuck it with the most persistent type of glue.

☆ ☆ ☆

Recently I have been trading in the Carmel valley a few miles south of Monterey, Calif. You would be surprised how backward they are in this backwoods community.

"What do I get?" I said when the tank was filled.

"Tires checked?" said the man.

"No green stamps?" I said. "No free chances on a Thunderbird?"

Well, the man just looked at me. It shows we've got to bring civilization to these sheltered people. The Stone Age is over.

"Do you realize," I said sternly, "that a New Orleans gas company gives away three mink coats? An Arizona chain gifts the consumer with a new car every 55 days?"

"I'm afraid we don't get out of the country often enough," he said apologetically. "Naturally we subscribe to all the magazines and get TV but ——"

"You cannot keep too closely in touch with modern merchandising, I said. "Gasoline is no longer sold to fuel a car. It is a chance on four burros complete with saddles, as successfully given away by a Houston gas chain.

"It is trading stamps, premiums, ticket-punching, free nylons. The business has changed since John D Rockefeller was passing out new dimes."

☆ ☆ ☆

As near as I can see, the business has changed in the same way that drugstores progressed. Once they found that there was more money in bathing caps than in aspirin.

Gasoline used to be a mysterious thing that came out of a pump into a Model-T Ford. The man wound a crank. You could hear the life blood going into the tank under the seat. When he was through he lifted the hose and drained it until you got every last drop.

The guage was a wood ruler that you dipped in the tank and marked by the height of the wet spot. A gas station man had to pay attention to the gasoline business and had no time to merchandise sets of dishes.

Nowadays, he sticks the nozzle in the rear of the car and flips a lever. The gasoline pours in and stops automatically when the tank is full.

There is no more winding of a handle. Somehow I always felt that I was getting my money's worth in those days because obviously there was effort going into it. The gas station man had arm muscles like the village blacksmith.

He had no time to sell side orders. While he pumped, we checked our own tires for pressure and put water in the radiator.

The gas station man did not water the radiator on the same theory that you don't water another man's horse. You know the beast best.

For one thing, the Model-T was usually steaming. The radiator top was removed with gingerly twists, a thread at a time. When it reached the final trembling thread you gave it a quick flip and jumped back.

Wow! I have seen my radiator cap go 30 feet in the air. It showed the car had power and was ready to go.

☆ ☆ ☆

At this point, we would start the engine and the gas station man would feed water to it. Slowly, like watering a horse. You let it run a little and watered it a little.

If you fed it water too fast, it might crack the block.

But that's all over now. Now he's too busy punching your giveway ticket.

Corn For Silage Talk Commences

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP) — Some Richardson County farmers, whose corn has been badly damaged by the severe heat of the last 10 days, are beginning to talk about salvaging some corn acreage for silage.

County Agent Tom Aitken said it is the heat rather than the dry weather which is doing most of the damage.

Three weeks ago, before the prolonged heat spell began, veteran county farmers said prospects for a corn crop were the best in history.

Popcorn Days, Founded Back In Era Of Wire Poppers, To Mark 54th Year

Lincoln Star Special

NORTH LOUP, Neb. — Everything from free popcorn to the coronation of the 1955 popcorn queen will be included in the 54th annual Popcorn Days at North Loup Sept. 13, 14, and 15.

Chairman Dell Barber said there would be plenty of popcorn popped, sacked and ready to hand out to visitors. Last year the "take" was more than 20,000 sacks.

A football game with Ashton is scheduled for the afternoon of September 13, which is also entry day for agricultural, fancy work, canning, sewing and school exhibits. There will be square dancing on the first night, modern dancing on both other nights. An amateur contest will again be an event.

Will Crown Queen

On September 14 the top events will be a horse show, juvenile parade and coronation of the 1955 popcorn queen. The queen will be elected by popular vote, the preceding Saturday.

The traditional float parade, sponsored by the Fortnightly Club will headline the afternoon of September 14. A 50 voice community chorus will be an added feature along with the usual free entertainment for the evening. An amusement company will be in town throughout.

Back in 1901, four North Loup business men all now deceased, met and decided to do something about the fact that the village of North Loup of less than 500 persons raised and shipped more popcorn out of the town than any known. I. A. Manchester, then buying and selling popcorn through contracts aided by Walter Rood, R .N. Bee and E. J. Babcock began the fall festivities which has become a tradition.

Used Real Butter

Back in 1901 there were no electric corn poppers, even if there had been, there wouldn't have been any way to use them. The corn was popped in old fashioned wire poppers, real butter used on the corn which was placed in half bushel baskets and passed among the crowd.

Up until 1926 to 1928 free coffee with cream and sugar helped with the picnic dinners brought in by families who had driven in by horse pulled buggies and wagons. The crowd then grew too large for the business men to cope with. These four men grew along with the celebration that has grown and is known far and wide.

Popcorn queens have been elected by popular vote for more than 30 years, the coronation making up the greater part of one evening performance.

Wheat Harvest Ends Except For Panhandle Area

The Nebraska wheat harvest is over, excepting for a few small areas in the Panhandle section, the State Employment Service reported Wednesday.

Sufficient equipment and labor are on hand to complete the job, the report added.

In neighboring South Dakota, an estimated 90 per cent of the wheat has been harvested in the southern counties, and 50 per cent in the northern areas.

Ft. Randall To G.I. Line 'Not Justified'

WASHINGTON — A 230-kilovolt power line from Ft. Randall Dam to Grand Island can not be justified, the Bureau of Reclamation has told the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The bureau submitted a special report on a feasibility study ordered earlier by the committee.

According to the report, a committee source said, the 230-kilovolt line would be economically feasible on the basis of present power allocations in Nebraska.

He said the bureau now is free to start construction of a 115-kilovolt line from Ft. Randall to Neligh, Neb.

He indicated Nebraska's future share of power from Oahe Dam in South Dakota figured very little, if at all, in the bureau's conclusions about the larger and longer line. Oahe is scheduled for completion in 1961.

The committee source said that if Oahe power had been taken into consideration, the feasibility picture might have been changed somewhat.

"But it would take a sizable bloc of power from Oahe to justify a project of this size (the 230-kilovolt line)," he said.

The bureau's report came as no surprise.

Nebraska power officials have been in Washington repeatedly this year to urge Congressional approval of the 230-kilovolt line, but got little encouragement from bureau officials.

Department Store Sales Up One Pct.

OMAHA (AP) — Nebraska department store sales rose 1 per cent over the 1954 level for the week ended July 23, the Federal Reserve bank of Kansas City reported.

The previous week they had been down 1 per cent.

For the Jan. 1-July 23 period, the Nebraska sales were 3 per cent over 1954.

Heavy Fish Loss, Sewage Problem Caused By Low Blue River

Lincoln Star Special

MILFORD, Neb. — Nebraska's combine dheat wave and long dry spell are causing troubles along the Blue River in this vicinity.

Involved are sewage disposal problems upstream at Seward plus heavy fish losses.

Only a trickle of water, estimated at 11 inches wide and three inches deep, is flowing above the river's Dam No. 1 southeast of Milford. Ray Hammond, dam operator for the past 23 years, said this is the lowest stage he has ever seen for the river.

Below the river there is only stagnant water which is taking a heavy toll of bullheads and catfish, according to Roy Owens of Crete, state game warden.

Owens, Hammond and Harry Dedic, a farmer living below the dam, inspected the area and transferred an estimated 20,000 fish into the water below the dam. Several thousand fish were lost, the men revealed.

Heavy irrigation demands due to the lack of rain have brought this situation, observers said.

The dam in the town of Milford is completely dry with water there measuring only eight inches across and three inches in depth. The three dams on the West Branch of the Blue were reported still okay.

In Crete the water level on the Blue remains almost normal although the water is reported stagnant and expected to cause a heavy fish loss.

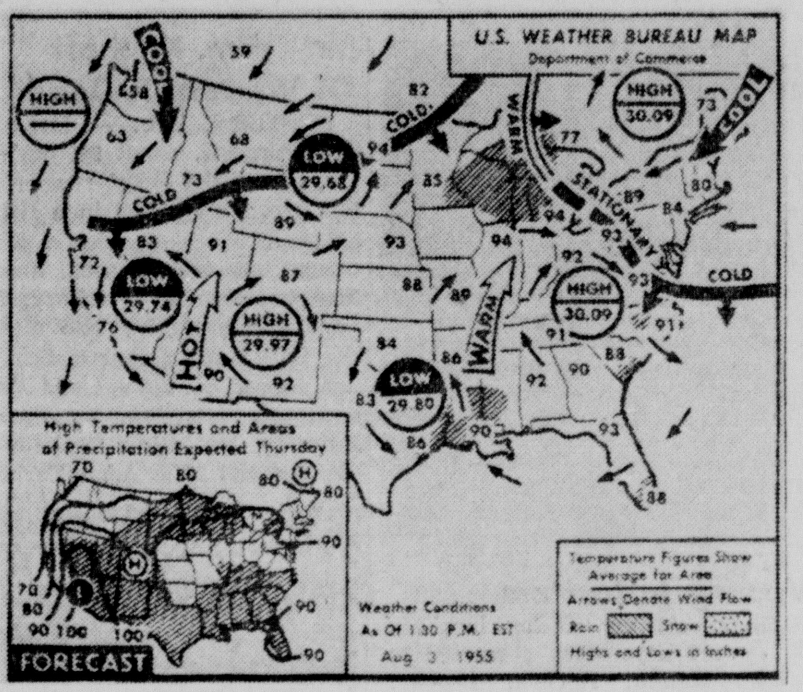
Meanwhile, Seward officials were concerned with not only a loss of fish but also a sewage disposal problem.

Willard Meyer, president of the Seward City Council, said late Wednesday the situation is "not critical." However, he pointed out that the water level is too low to carry away the sewage.

Meyer said Seward is planning a $125,000 sewage disposal project, but the program, still lacking the necessary funds, obviously would not solve the current problem. He estimated the river there approximately six feet wide and eight to 10 inches deep.

Hammond said he quit pumping the wheel at Milford's Dam No. 1 July 15 when the heat and drought first appeared.

Paul Gilbert of the State Fish and Game Commission said officials from the department planned to check Thursday the Blue River situation together with a similar problem in Salt Creek in the Lincoln vicinity.



Warm Temperatures Continue

It will be fair Thursday in the northeastern section of the country except for a few isolated thunderstorms in western New York. Afternoon showers and thunderstorms are due in the southern states from the Carolinas westward to the southern Plateau region. Scattered thunderstorm activity also will occur in the northern Plain states eastward to the upper Great Lakes. Temperatures will continue warm over most of the country except for comfortable readings in the New England states, the Pacific northwest and the northern Plains states. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Norwegian Air Cadets Will Visit Sandhill Ranch Area

MERRIMAN, Neb. (AP)—The Merriman Commercial Club will be hosts to a group of touring Norwegian Air Cadets now in Nebraska, former U.S. Sen. Eva Bowring announced.

She said the cadets will be entertained by the Sandhills community Aug. 5-6-7 with a varied program including a trip to the Black Hills of South Dakota.

The group will arrive in Merriman by plane Friday and go in private planes to the Minor Ranch where they will visit a hay camp, watch the haying operations, and have lunch.

Then they will fly to the Essie Davis ranch near Hyannis to look over the cattle and go on to Chadron for dinner and an overnight stay at the Chadron State Teachers College.

Saturday they will go by bus to the Black Hills, visiting Hot Springs, Rushmore Memorial, the Rapid City Air Force Base, and then return by way of the Bad Lands, stopping at Cedar Pass camp on their way back to Merriman.

Aug. 7 they will visit the Allie Sandoz ranch, attend Church in Merriman, have a picnic in the park and then fly back to Omaha. The cadets are members of the Norwegian Air Club, equivalent to the Civil Air Patrol in this Country. They are visiting the United States under an exchange program involving air cadets of 21 free nations.

Six-Month-Old Wage Dispute Finally Ends

The six-month wage dispute between AFL Teamsters Union locals in Nebraska and the Nebraska Small Carriers Assn. has been settled.

The agreement provides a $1.87 per hour scale in Lincoln, $1.92 in Omaha and $1.82 in Scottsbluff, Kearney, Hastings and Grand Island.

A guaranteed system of increases will be followed at all points until the scale reaches $2.24 for all locals Aug. 1, 1957.

The old wage scale, provided by a contract which ended last February, was $1.57 an hour at all points.

The new agreement also scales the work week down from 48 to 40 hours. It is not retroactive to February on either wages or hours.

Drop Charges

The union agreed to drop charges of unfair labor practices it had filed in connection with "lockout" charges.

The association agreed to drop district court action aimed at getting declared illegal the "hot cargo" clause under which union members of a non-struck firm will not handle cargo assigned to, or to be transferred from, a struck firm.

Small Carriers Assn. members signing the agreement were Bee Line Motor Freight, Omaha; Brown Transfer, Kearney; West Nebraska Express, Scottsbluff; Over-Nite Express, Hastings, and Interstate Freight Lines, Nielsen and Petersen, Inc., and United Freight Lines, all of Grand Island.

Ex-Polk Resident Given Credit For Spreading Alarm

POLK, Neb. (AP)—A former Polk resident who now lives in Suisun, Calif., was credited with spreading the warning that permitted more than 30 persons to escape safely from a burning hotel.

He is Harold Schultz, former Polk cafe operator. Schultz was awakened by smoke about 1 a.m. and dashed down the corridor of the hotel warning other occupants of rooms.

After he had spread the warning he went back to his own room but the only thing he had time to save was his pet parakeet.

Jeep Accident Kills G.I. Man

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP) — One Grand Island man was killed and another injured Wednesday when the jeep in which they were riding went off Highway 281 at the south edge of Grand Island.

Killed was Sam Katrouzos, 29. Robert Boehm, 29, driver of the jeep, was treated at a hospital and released.

The jeep skidded off the road, went through a fence, smashed into two trees and overturned.

It was Nebraska's 164th traffic fatality of the year, compared with 176 at this time in 1954.

Blonde, 24, And Hubby Nabbed By FBI In $100,000 Extortion Try

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 24-year-old blonde and her husband, 22, were arrested by the FBI Wednesday on charges of trying to extort $100,000 from a millionaire contractor.

Mrs. Veronica Elsie Williams was apprehended, the FBI said, immediately after she accepted at a branch post office a dummy package supposedly containing the money. Edgar Leon Williams, an unemployed musician, was picked up shortly afterwards at the couple's apartment.

They are accused of writing a letter to John Thompson, threatening his family and the children of his recently slain daughter, Mrs. Norma McCauley, unless he mailed $100,000 to them.

Bail $20,000

The couple was arraigned Wednesday before U.S. Commissioner Theodore Hocke, who set bail at $20,000 each and Aug. 25 for a preliminary hearing. They deny the charges.

The FBI said the note read: "This is no joke. Thompson, get this straight. If you don't want the three McCauley kids harmed you better come through with $100,000 in cash. If the money is not received by Wednesday, Aug. 3, something terrible will happen to your children.

"We mean business so don't try to notify the police or anyone else. Any tricks and you'll regret it. Any word to anyone or one slipup and you'll have a dead kid on your hands.

Mail $100,000 In Cash

"Mail $100,000 in cash in a plain wrapped package to Dale Smith, Inc., at 3909 Denker Street, Los Angeles, 62."

The FBI said a "dummy" package was dispatched to the apartment this morning. A woman at the address said no Dale Smith lived there. The package was returned to a post office branch nearby.

Soon a woman appeared there and claimed the package, identifying herself as Dale Smith. She was promptly arrested by FBI agents, who identified her as Mrs. Williams.

FBI men said they believe the wealthy Thompson family was chosen for the extortion attempt because of the publicity received when Mrs. McCauley was killed.

Her former houseboy, John R. Crooker Jr., is charged with murdering her. Mrs. McCauley, 33, was stabbed and throttled to death with her own stole in her luxurious hilltop home last July 5. Crooker had worked as her houseboy since her divorce four months earlier.

FAT BOY, 13, KILLS MOTHER, THEN HIMSELF

PORTLAND, Ind. (AP) — The 230-pound, 13-year-old son of a Portland newspaper employe, "self conscious because of his size," apparently killed his mother by shooting her through the head Tuesday and then took his own life with the same weapon, police reported.

George Feierstein, pressman on the Portland Commercial-Review, said he returned to his home to find his wife, Loretta, 39, lying dead on her bed. She had been shot through a temple.

Police found the body of the boy in a soybean field 150 feet behind the house. Although shot through the mouth, the boy still clutched a .22-caliber sawed off rifle.

The father said he knew of no reason for the shootings but told police his son suffered from a thyroid condition.

"He was self-conscious because of his size," the father said.

Soybean Crop Begins To Wilt

FREMONT, Neb. (AP) — County Agent Russell Hughes has reported that soybean fields in Dodge County are showing signs of wilt from a week of extreme hot weather and some damage to crops can be expected.

Much of the corn also has been damaged, some of it extensively, but areas which received an inch or more of rain Sunday and Monday should have sufficient moisture now to assure a good yield, he added.

Councilwoman Orme Takes Lead To Trim Possible $2.61 Tax Raise

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

After several weeks of study, City Council members are still facing a 1955-56 fiscal year budget request that may call for a $2.61 per $1,000 increase in local taxes.

The tax levy would be about 15.62 mills if the budget were left as it now is. The levy for the year now ending is 13.1 mills.

The 15.62 mill figure is the result of a number of cuts in departmental requests.

When asked by Councilwoman Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme if he didn't think the budget would have to be pared down, Mayor Clark Jeary replied, "that would be fine, but how can it be done?"

Another Meet Friday

The Council scheduled another budget meeting Friday to discuss further changes.

It was suggested by Mrs. Orme that the proposed $80,000 for a new swimming pool might be done away with and requested salary increases cut back some. She mentioned no specific amount in regard to salaries.

City employes have asked for a blanket 8 per cent wage increase. Mrs. Orme is the only Council member who has openly taken a stand on salaries.

On the swimming pool, the only expressions so far are from Mrs. Orme and Councilman Pat Ash, who advocated construction of the new pool.

Opposes Travel

Mrs. Orme has also asked for a breakdown from all city departments on amounts they have spent for travel expenses. She has consistently opposed travel by city officials on tax funds.

The big increase in the budget is found in the so called unlimited fund, financial obligations such as bonds that the Council has to meet regardless of cost.

The increase in that fund is due to the new plan for financing police and firemen's pensions and to higher payments for bond retirement and interest. The pension appropriation must go from $90,569 for the year now ending to $210,000 for the new year.

As the budget now stands, regular departmental operations would be down. General limited fund requests now would require a levy of 10.785 mills as compared to 11.306 mills levied for this purpose for the 1954-55 fiscal year.

Matches CD Fund

In other budget action, the Council approved an additional $1,000 for the civil defense committee budget, boosting the total city contribution for that cause to $4,500. The county earlier announced its intention of matching the amount and giving the committee free office space in the Courthouse.

In discussing the budget, Mayor Clark Jeary disagreed with a recent report of the International Association of Chiefs of Police recommending the transfer of the traffic violations bureau of the Police Department to the Municipal Court.

Municipal Court Judge John Jacobson had previously stated that the transfer would cost additional funds for operation and that the bureau was not a logical part of the judicial system.

Agreeing with Jacobson, Jeary noted that the Lincoln Municipal Court is "not just a traffic court. Our court handles civil cases up to $1,000 and just happens to also handle traffic cases."

According to Jeary, the city legal department would be the logical place to put the bureau if it is to be divorced from the Police Department.

Prisoner Loses Moves In Court

Appearing in Federal Court in connection with legal motions he filed in connection with his sentence, Gordon Allen Shepherd wound up withdrawing his motions and returning to the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

Shepherd was recently sentenced there by Federal Judge John W. Delehant after the defendant had pleaded no contest to causing forged and fictious checks to be transported in interstate commerce.

He is now serving a five-year term for a similar offense in Iowa.

The basic motion made by Shepherd was to correct the record, judgment and sentence. Among supplemental motions was one to enjoin the Nebraska marshal or his deputies from transporting Shepherd.

The court summarily denied the latter motion, observing that neither the defendant or the court controls the transportation of prisoners.

Judge Delehant overruled Shepherd's affidavit of bias and prejudice and the request the court be a witness.

Shepherd heard the proceedings with a hearing aid rented for him by U. S. Marshal William Raab.

Airman, Wife Soon To Get Foster Child

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Air Force Sergeant and his wife soon will be reunited in Holly Hill, S. C., with their adopted 17-months old British daughter, Sen. Thurmond (D-SC) said Wednesday.

The little girl, Joyce Ann McDonagh, has been adopted by Air Force Sgt. George Vinansky, formerly of Scranton, Pa., and his wife, the former Joyce Benton, of Holly Hill.

She will be accompanied to this country by her real mother, Mrs. Thomas McDonagh of Earlestown, Lancashire, England.

Close Friends

The Vinanskys and the McDonaghs became close friends when the sergeant was stationed in Great Britain. When the baby was only a few days old, the two couples decided she'd have a better chance in life if she came to America with the Vinanskys who then adopted her, Thurmond said.

A hitch developed, however, when she was refused a visa to accompany her adopted parents to the United States.

Soon after their arrival here, the Vinanskys contacted Thurmond and he took up the matter with the immigration and State Department officials.

Visas for the baby and her real mother now have been issued at Liverpool, the department informed Thurmond Wednesday.

Congress' Last Rush Just About KOd Public Printer

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Well, Congress finally got out of town, and probably no one is more relieved than the harrassed Public Printer.

Not that Raymond Blattenberger or any of his assistants at the Government Printing Office would make such an undiplomatic statement. But in their case, the record speaks for itself. The "Congressional Record," that is.

The Record, three columns wide and the size of a magazine, comes out each morning with a complete account of what has taken place in the House and Senate on the previous day.

Or, rather, that is what it usually does. But recently congressmen have spewed out, said, bubbled up with—choose your own verb—so many words that it has been difficult to wrap them up in one tidy package.

"Our mailing machine will only handle 256 pages," a printing plant official said. "We have been running right up to the limit, or maybe even a little more, each day. A couple of days we squeezed through a few extra pages by running it slow."

But the final day's flood of oratory bowled over the Public Printer completely.

Both the House and Senate went into session early and talked away steadily. Finally, his 256 pages gone, the printer ended up this way:

"At this point the printing of the Senate proceeding of Tuesday, August 2, was discontinued. The remainder of Tuesday's proceedings will be published in the next issue of the Record."

Did Congress really wind up its business? Or did some senator get the floor and ignite a last minute filibuster? Don't miss tomorrow's thrilling episode.

Cloak-Dagger Case Delayed By Red Tape

NOVARA, Italy (AP) — Italian red tape Wednesday appeared to be delaying a trip to the United States by 18 Italians to testify in an inquiry into the wartime cloak-and-dagger slaying of Maj. William Holohan.

The Italians, former partisans, were expected to testify before a federal grand jury reported to have been called in Washington to reopen the bizarre case.

But an Italian police official said Wednesday no passport priority has been granted the 18 witnesses and that he must consider them "mere tourists going abroad."

No Word

The statement was made by Dr. Rosario Ruggiero, police chief of Novarra. He told a reporter he had no official word on the status of the 18 persons. Thus, he said, passports could not be approved pending the arrival of such documents as birth certificates.

An agent of the U.S. FBI, identified as Alex Smith, spent the entire day at the Novarra police headquarters, apparently trying to speed the procedure. Tonight he returned to his hotel in the small town of Borgomanero and refused to comment to reporters.

The 18 Italians reportedly are to be flown to America by the U.S. Air Force. The Gazetta del Popolo of Turin, which originally reported the case was being reopened, said U.S. authorities want to learn whether evidence exists against two former U.S. soldiers in the behind-the-lines slaying.

The two, former Lt. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh and former Sgt. Carl Lo Dolce of Rochester, N.Y., already have been tried in absentia by an Italian court and found guilty of slaying Holohan.

One Exception

ST. LOUIS (INS)—Police of St. Louis—where humid 90 degree weather is common in the summer, agree with Mayor Raymond Tucker on the need for more appropriate hot weather uniforms. But they don't agree 100 per cent. The mayor suggested a sports shirt (open at the collar), a sun helmet and Bermuda shorts. Only the sports shirt and the sun helmet have met the approval of the officers.

Louisiana Convicts Freed Selves With Forged Papers

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Louisiana prison officials Wednesday night disclosed details of a forgery ring that operated inside the State Penitentiary at Angola to obtain early releases for convicts.

The ring came to light when Warden Maurice Sigler noted an erasure on the records of men due to be freed.

Developments proved later, officials said, the convict was the contact for the ring. He solicited business among inmates at the 18,000-acre prison farm, about 50 miles north of Baton Rouge.

Clumsy Job

Institutions Director Edward Grant said the man was tripped up when his two convict clerk confederates did a clumsy job on his release papers.

Grant said a check since the irregularities were uncovered Monday night revealed at least 12 cases of record changes. But indications were, he said, the practice dated back "five or six years."

Grant said fugitive warrants had been issued for seven prisoners freed by forged papers.

Grant said prison records for all convicts would be checked against Parole Board records in Baton Rouge. And back records of releases would be checked for at least five years and maybe further.

Russ Show Model Atom Power Plant

. . . At Geneva

GENEVA (AP) — A Russian engineer pulled the cover off a gleaming white model of the Soviet Union's atomic power station Wednesday.

The preview took place in a dark corner of a room in the Palace of Nations, where Soviet engineers and workmen are laying out an exhibition of Soviet progress in the use of atomic energy.

The model will be unveiled formally Sunday, a day before the opening of the United Nations conference on peaceful uses of atomic energy. Only a few foreigners, among them Prime Minister Nehru of India, have seen the power station.

Wood And Plaster

The model is a wood and plaster structure about 5x5 feet in size, said to be one-fortieth the size of the actual power station.

The front of the station consists of a three-story administration and laboratory wing of plain, but pleasant design. The uranium graphite reactor unit, which produces 5,000 kilowatts of power, is directly behind this wing and extends two floors below the ground level. It is surrounded by concrete protecting walls.

The entire back portion of the station is honeycombed with various control rooms, laboratories, pumping stations and quarters for workmen. A Russian engineer said the power station is operated by "19 men per shift."

Baby Is Born ½-Hour After Mother Dies

SALT LAKE CITY (INS) — A seven and one-half pound baby boy was delivered by caesarian section in Salt Lake City Wednesday nearly half an hour after his mother was pronounced dead.

Police ambulance crewmen were called to the home of Hugh Oman when his wife, Delores, 21, collapsed. Police rushed her to the hospital when she failed to respond to application of a resuscitator. The officers said they believed the woman was dead when they arrived.

Physicians said the child, who was expected to be born normally today, had a better than 50-50 chance to live, but said there may have been brain damage because of the length of time the mother's heart had not been pumping.

Stocks Manage Token Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — Early buying strength in the stock market faded away by the close Wednesday, but the market managed to mark up a token advance.

It was the second day of hesitancy in which gainers were barely able to outnumber losers. Prices spread over a $3 range either way.

Aircrafts enjoyed an early buying flurry and provided the impetus for the general move forward.

But buying enthusiasm for this group died out in the afternoon and the rest of the market almost lost its pep as prices subsided.

After the close the Federal Reserve Board in Washington announced the discount rate for the Federal Reserve Bank in Cleveland had been boosted from 1¾ to 2¼ per cent, highest since 1934.

At the same time, three other Federal Reserve banks raised their discount rates to 2 per cent.

The discount rate is the interest charged by Federal Reserve banks on money loaned to member commercial banks.

Increasing the rate makes money more expensive and tends to discourage excessive borrowing.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 10 cents at $174.00. It was ahead 20 cents Tuesday and lost $1.90 the previous day.

The industrial component of the averages was up 20 cents and rails were ahead 40 cents while utilities were down 20 cents.

The market started fast with more than a million shares changing hands in the first two hours, but the pace slowed to make a total of 2,190,000 shares for the day. There were 2,260,000 traded Tuesday.

On the American Stock Exchange, prices were generally higher. Volume came to 690,000 shares as compared with 710,000 shares Tuesday.

Bitter Sweet

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A husband complained to police that he had a difference of opinion with his wife. Then she found his car on a downtown parking lot and poured several pounds of sugar into the gas tank.

Braniff Pays State Tax Bill

State Tax Commissioner Fred Herrington Wednesday reported receipt of a check for $31,391 from Braniff Airways of Dallas, Tex., in payment of personal property taxes on airplanes touching down at Lincoln and Omaha.

The company in an accompanying letter explained it was paying the tax under protest. It contends the Nebraska tax is unconstitutional, but an appeal to the United States Supreme Court was unsuccessful.

Wednesday's payment covered $25,306 taxes for the 1950-54 period, and $6,084 for interest.

Before receipt of the check, Herrington had pointed out he might be obliged to seize one of the company's planes and sell it for the delinquent tax.

"I'm pleased they chose this course. If the tax is illegal, they'll get their money back. But in the meantime we have the money to use in state government, he commented.

Twelve pages of wholesome colored comics, feature stories with plenty of pictures and the big entertainment section are a few reasons why nearly every one reads The "Sunday Journal and Star."

4 Die As Logs Crush Autos

MYRTLE CREEK, Ore. (INS)—Four persons were killed and two small children were critically injured Wednesday when a load of logs rolled from a truck and crushed two cars on a curve of Highway 99 near here.

Police listed the dead as Bernice Jean Lemen, 31, and Cecil LeRoy Lemen, 34, of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. John Victor Sheely of National City, Calif.

The children, Peggy Lemen, 6, and her brother, Jimmy, 2, were not expected to live.

According to Arthur Kelly, driver of the truck, the California car attempted to pass the Lemen car, causing him to swerve his truck. Kelly said he lost his load, crushing both cars.

Lugosi To Leave Hospital; Film Set

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Actor Bela Lugosi leaves Metropolitan State Hospital in Norwalk Friday following a three-month treatment for drug addiction.

Doctors say the 67-year-old actor, noted for his "horror" roles has improved "remarkably."

Lugosi turned himself in for narcotics addition which he said plagued him for 20 years.

Lugosi will remain under the jurisdiction of the California Department of Mental Health for one year.

He is scheduled to star soon in a new picture, "The Ghoul Goes West."
